Daughter To Be Pilot, Mother 'Navigator'

A Larkspur mother and daughter plan to spend most of the next six weeks in the air.

At the controls of her own Cessna 170-B airplane will be Marcia Dunn. Riding along as passenger and "acting cartographer" will be her mother, Mrs. Marshall Dunn. Both live at 965 Magnolia Avenue.

Their only regret is that they can't take dad along. He can't take the six weeks off from his job as sales supervisor of a San Francisco liquor distributing company.

Flying is nothing new to any of the Dunns. Marcia, who is executive secretary for a San Francisco foot doctor, started taking flying lessons shortly after her 21st birthday. Her mother, and dad too, have been passengers on many flights in her blue-trimmed silver Cessna. But the six-week jaunt, taking off tomorrow from the Marin County Airport at Novato, will be the longest yet for both Marcia and her mother.

They're not out to set any records, for it's strictly a vacation jaunt. If the weather is right, they plan to fly tomorrow to El Paso, Tex. If they get a late start or find bad flying weather, they'll land at Tucson, Ariz. Second stop on the flight will be at New Orleans.

From there, they'll fly to New York, take in the World Fair, then return with stops at Buffalo, Cleveland, Chicago, Milwaukee, and Yellowstone National Park.

The trip has been charted on 47 sectional maps prepared by the U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey. Mama will mind them while Marcia flies the plane.

PILOT AND CARTOGRAPHER—Dad will stay home while Mrs. Marshall Dunn and daughter Marcia spend six weeks on a flying vacation—with Marcia as the pilot—starting tomorrow. The Larkspur mother-daughter team will fly from Marin County Airport in Miss Dunn's own plane, and expect to reach El Paso, Tex., on the first day's journey. (Independent-Journay photo)

Compromise Budget Sent To Assembly

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The Assembly ways and means committee speedily approved compromise terms lifting the long state budget deadlock and sent the 3.67-billion-dollar bill to the house today.

The committee, without debate, accepted the 40.7 million dollars in cuts worked out by a team of Democratic and Republican negotiators.

It rejected a proposal by Assemblman William E. Dannemeyer (D-Fullerton), to reduce the outlay for University of California and state colleges by 87 million dollars in a move to force them to impose student tuitions.

Dannemeyer called for a $400 tuition for students from within California, and urged increasing the $600 charge for out-of-state students to what he said it actually costs to educate them.

The committee referred the proposal to the Assembly Rules Committee for interim study.

Approval of the budget compromise came at a quickie meeting shortly after the Republican caucus formally ratified the terms.

The caucus chairman, Don Mulford (R-Oakland) said that meant "full speed ahead" on sending the bill to the Senate.

The Assembly was expected to act on the record-high measure later in the day.

Majority Democrats yielded 40.7 million dollars in proposed spending in exchange for the Republican votes they need to send the appropriation bill to the Senate.

Republicans originally demanded 63.5 million dollars in cuts, then lowered their sights to 45 million dollars.

Unruh Flays Tax Appraiser 'Corruption'

The Los Angeles Democrat thus stepped into a growing legislative controversy over the appraisers, who are appointed by State Controller Alan Cranston.

Unruh, speaking at a news conference, declined to link Cranston's name with his criticism of the appraisers. He is a political foe of the Controller.

State Farm Loan Ceiling Raised

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Veterans can start applying for state farm loan with a new ceiling of $80,000, the California Department of Veterans Affairs announced today.

The department said it will make the first loan in July under a new bill signed by Gov. Edmund G. Brown doubling the former $40,000 ceiling on farm loans for veterans.

The higher loans are expected to spur farm area economies, said Joseph M. Farber, director of veterans affairis.

Three-Car Crash Injures Driver Near Sausalito

A San Rafael man was injured at 11 a.m. today in a three-car crash just north of the Sausalito turn off from Highway 101.

William R. Talley, 55, of 15 Meriam Drive was treated at Marin General Hospital for a cut over his right eye and shoulder and chest injuries.

The accident happened, according to the California Highway Patrol, when a car driven by Robert A. Garay, 20, of Millbrae hit the rear of a car driven by Roy Peter Bergh, 65, of Olympia, Wash.

Talleys car then plowed into the rear of Garay's car in the northbound lane.

Turkey Agrees, Greece Rejects Cyprus Idea

THE HAGUE (UPI) — Turkey agreed today to accept NATO or other mediation efforts to end the Cyprus crisis once shooting stops on that island.

But Greece said it would not accept NATO or any other mediation as long as the Cyprus issue is in United Nations hands for settlement.

Fishing Boat As Hideaway Fails To Save Bandit

Car Provides Clue To $30 Robbery Of Alto Gas Station

A 29-year-old San Quentin parolee was arrested on a fishing boat berthed in Sausalito early today only two hours after ellegedly staging a $30 armed robbery of an Alto service station attendant.

The suspect, Humberto Zelaya Jr. of Santa Rosa, was booked in Marin County jail at 2:30 a.m. on a charge of robbing Paul B. McCarrick, 18, attendant at the Standard Service Station at 580 Redwood Highway in Alto.

DOZEN OFFICERS

He was captured by a about a dozen sheriff's officers and Sausalito police after a car allegedly used in the holdup was spotted near the boat, "Irish Rose," moored beside 1700 block of Bridgeway in Sausalito.

Officers said Zelaya surrendered without trouble. The money was recovered.

McCarrick, of 1415 South Novato Boulevard, Novato, said he was closing the station about 12:30 a.m. when a man drove up in a 1960 Volkswagen. When McCarrick informed him the station was closed, the man replied "I don't want gas, I want your money."

HAD REVOLVER

The man menaced McCarrick with a .38-caliber snub-nosed revolver, forced him to reopen the door, and looted the cash register of $30, McCarrick told Sheriff's Sgt. Edward McKamey.

He then took a pocket knife and slashed the station's telephone cord and that in an outside pay phone booth, later making McCarrick wipe fingerprints from both receivers with a rag, the victim told officers.

SAW PLATE

McCarrick noted the car's front license plate number. He said a white cloth had been tied over the rear license plate.

On McCarrick's description of the robber and vehicle, an all-points bulletin was dispatched by sheriff's officers. Santa Rosa police responded with Zelaya's name as likely suspect. They said he was often aboard the Irish Rose, a 30-foot commercial fishing boat operated by Robert Barton of Santa Rosa.

Sausalito Police Sgt. Howard Goerndt spotted the Volkswagen, with cloth removed from the rear license, parked in the lot of Associated Dredging Co. at 1702 Bridgeway.

Officers surrounded the boat until daylight, and called to Zelaya over a portable "bull-

'Freedom Schools' Set For Sausalito Boycott

Negro History Slated During Demonstration

By BRUCE COLEMAN

"Freedom schools" will be opened in Marin City on Monday at the same time about 600 Negro pupils are expected to boycott the four public schools in the Sausalito School District.

As far as the Sausalito School District is concerned, however, children who do not attend their regular schools will be considered truants.

Negro and white teachers will conduct classes in Negro history, and art and show films on freedom at the "freedom schools." The hours will be the same as those for the regular schools. School for kindergarten through fourth grade will be held at the First Missionary Baptist Church.

About 150 children have been registered so far for the schools, Douglas J. Quiett, chairman of Marin chapter of Congress of Racial Equality, said today.

"We hope to give the children a deep sense of American history and contributions made by Negroes in the struggle of all people for equality and brotherhood," said Quiett.

The strike was decided upon, Quiett said, because of failure of efforts over an eight-month period to obtain a positive integration plan for primary grades from the school district trustees and administration.

THREE SCHOOLS

These children attend three schools, Manzanita in Marin City, Central and Bayside in Sausalito. Fifth through eighth graders attend Richardson Bay School, which Quiett agreed is integrated.

"The purpose of the demonstration is to demonstrate that Negro parents are tired of the unequal education and segregated circumstances in which their children are being taught," Quiett declared. The boycott is for all Negro pupils. It is hoped, Quiett commented, that some white pupils who are sympathetic will also take part.

Supt. Marcus F. Davis of Sausalito School District said letters are being sent to all parents advising that school will operate Monday as any other day and that no one is excused. Those who do not attend will be considered as truants.

LOWER ABILITIES

Quiett said Marin CORE began meeting with school district officials after a comment by Superintendent Davis last summer that Negro pupils have lower learning abilities than whites. "We also got complaints," he said "about Negro children being placed in mentally retarded classes who should not have been there."

A consultant of the State Board of Education was called in to try to get both parties to reach an agreement, Quiett said.

"During this time our aim was to try to get the board to agree to some constructive efforts toward integration and good and equal education by September, 1964," he said.

"Many parents during this eight-month period have complained to CORE about education standards at Manzanita and the over-all treatment of the children. They feel the kids are not getting the same educa-

BULGING BUDGET

School Tax Vote Might Be Asked

Voters in the San Rafael Elementary School District may be asked next school year to approve another increase in the general purpose tax rate.

This suggstion came out last night during budget discussion by the San Rafael Board of Education. Among increased expenses are $200,000 for increasing the salary schedule for teachers and administrators and $43,000 to cover 4 per cent increase in salary for classified employees. (The figures include both elementary and high school districts.)

The board took no action of budget for either district, but approved a cutback in the summer school program for elementary schools to providing remedial classes only in reading and mathematics.

After lengthy discussion, trustees approved retention of the publications department, but endorsed a cutback from 12 to nine and one-half months for publications officer Lillian Seaver.

NURSERY SCHOOL

The board also voted to retain the nursery school program, provided at a cost of about $10,000 through the adult education service. Board member Walter J. Doll moved to delete the program, but his motion died for lack of a second.

Board chairman C. Paul Bettini wrs in favor of discontinuing the elementary school summer program, but he was overruled by the other four board members. The program will be cut from previous cost estimate of $20,000 to $5,000. It will be for four weeks, and pupils will be enrolled on recommendation of their teachers.

Under the revised budgets proposed last night, unappropriated reserves will be $121,600 in the high school district and $93,830 in the elementary school district.

TALKS OF RESERVE

"I think it's a precarious figure," Supt. Bert C. Corona declared. He said reserves should be between 5 and 10 per cent of the total budget. Budget total for the high school district as revised is $3,444,400 and for the elementary school district, $2,594,587.

Bettini said he believed other cuts would have to be made to bring reserves up in both districts.

Commandoes Attack Cuba Sugar Plant

COMBINED UPI & AP

MIAMI — Cuban exile comcandos attacked a big Castro sugar mill in Eastern Oriente province today and escaped after inflicting heavy damage, it was reported here.

Telephone reports from an undisclosed Central American base said the seaborne raiders from Manuel Artime's Movement for Revolutionary Recovery hit the Pilon Sugar Mill, in Eastern Cuba on Oriente Province's south coast just before dawn.

Artime was one of the leaders of the ill-fated Bay of Pigs invasion in 1961 and formerly headed the Catholic youth underground resistance to the Castro regime from within Cuba.

The hit-run raiders not only damaged the mill but also inflicted other damage, raid reports said. There was no immediate mention of casualties inflicted or suffered, if any.

"This is the first of a series of attacks to come immediately," a spokesman said. "Our immediate objective is to liquidate targets vital to the hangman Castro. Later on we shall go in for establishment of large scale guerrilla forces in our homeland.

Exiles here recalled that after Castro and his little band of invaders landed in Cuba, one of his first attacks, in 1956, was against a military outpost near the same sugar mill.

Board Approves 'Catcher In Rye'

AUBURN (UPI)—Trustees of the Placer Union Joint High School District decided last night to retain J. D. Salinger's novel "Catcher in the Rye" on a school reading list.

Board members, at a meeting last month, received petitions criticizing the book, which deals with the experiences and thoughts of a teen age boarding school student.

The board said that while the book will not be banned, neither will it be required reading.

French Cut Aid

PARIS (UPI) — The French cabinet, meeting under President Charles de Gaulle, today cut off economic aid to Tunisia in retaliation against the expropriation of foreign-owned lands in the North African republic. The decision will cost Tunisia about 200 million dollars annually.

July Draft Quota

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Defense Department asked Selective Service today to induct 8,000 men into the Army during July. The quota was above the 6,000-man draft previously set for June, but well below the 12,000-man quotas for April and May.

Big Planned Community Is Suggested

A new community with housing for 7,000 to 9,000 people is planned on 200 acres in East San Rafael by an Oakland development firm.

Ralph Wood of Wood and Associates said the parcel, on the south side of Highway 17 was leading to the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge, will have a large commercial area along with town houses, single family houses, and low, medium and high density multiple housing.

The land, on the east side of Highway 101, would be annexed to the City of San Rafael before the development began. Wood said drawings, models and illustrations of the proposed development should be ready for release next week.

Everything will be subject to approval of the city planning department and city hall.

The property has a frontage of 5,500 feet along Highway 17.

Further details on the proposal will not be announced by the firm until drawings are completed, Wood said.

House Group Won't Cut Aid

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The House foreign affairs committee, heeding pleas from President Lyndon B. Johnson, today beat down all attempts to cut his 3.4-billion-dollar foreign aid bill.

Chairman Thomas E. Morgan (D-Pa.) also rejected a Republican move to hold off action on the one-billion-dollar military aid portion of the bill until Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara reports the findings of his inspection trip to South Vietnam.

Morgan said that if the administration needs more money to fight the war in Vietnam, it can be added on the House floor.

Committee action on military aid was expected to be completed tomorrow.

FROM THE THAMES TO SAN FRANCISCO BAY?

A 70-seat Hoverbus skims down the Thames in London on run between the House of Parliament and Tower Bridge. San Francisco-Oakland Helicopter Airline has applied to the Civil Aeronautics Board for permission for a year-long test with two smaller hovercraft, carrying 20 passengers, on San Francisco Bay. The application assumes CAB has jurisdiction, since the hovercraft moves through the air—but only 18 inches above the surface of land or water. It travels on a cushion of air created by giant downward-pointing fans. (AP Wirephoto)

Senate Race Spills Into Legislature

Cranston Accused Of Pressuring His Appraisers

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

California's increasingly hot Democratic senatorial race has spilled into the state legislature, provoking harsh words among the normally amiable senators.

The intra-party battle for the Democratic nomination held the spotlight while Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater and New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller pursued votes in Oregon's Friday Republican presidential primary.

However, Rockefeller was to drop in at Eureka today in a four-hour quickie visit, before returning to the Oregon campaign trail.

CRANSTON HIT

Sen. Jack Schrade (R-Mar) touched off some acrimonious Senate debate yesterday. He introduced a resolution accusing State Controller Alan Cranston of putting the heat on state inheritance tax appraisers he appoints for contributions to his senatorial campaign chest.

Cranston immediately labeled the action typical of "the gutter politics we have come to expect of this irresponsible Republican . . ."

The Senate, however, refused to let the resolution be printed in its journal.

Sen. James A. Cobey (D-Merced) called the "unusual action . . . a rebuke for the unsubstantiated charges" of Schrade. But Sen. Clark S. Bradley (R-San Jose) said it meant "gag rule or censorship on members of this body."

Cranston, in a speech prepared for delivery today at East Los Angeles Junior College, blasted his chief opponent, former White House Press Secretary Pierre Salinger.

STRANGE COMPANY

"I do not agree with Salinger that we should expel the leadership of the Young Democrats from our party merely because we disagree with certain resolutions. Salinger is traveling in strange company when he joins forces with George Murphy, the arch-conservative Republican candidate, in slandering Democrats for daring to express their opinions."

Murphy told Republican women in San Jose last night that Salinger and Cranston "have abandoned the high road in the conduct of their campaigns."

Also in San Jose, a second GOP senatorial aspirant, Lee Kaiser, called for preserving at all costs the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

Goldwater Tops In Nebraska Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater was the top vote-getter in yesterday's Nebraska Republican presidential preference primary, where he was the only candidate listed. But he ran into a strong tide of write-in votes for former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and others.

The Arizona senator was barely scoring the majority of votes his supporters had predicted before the election. He had just over 50 per cent of the vote while Nixon — who in 1960 had the presidential nomination that Goldwater seeks this year — had about 31 per cent.

Goldwater's major announced rival for the nomination, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, polled a sizeable vote in the uncontested West Virginia preference primary.

Rockefeller had no write-in competition because such votes are not counted in West Virginia.

There were no Democratic preference contests in either state, but President Lyndon B. Johnson rolled up a substantial write-in vote in Nebraska. With 1,494 precincts reporting, he had 38,776 votes. Gov. Frank Morrison had 1,862 write-in votes. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy had 1,363 and Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama had 799.

The vote for Morrison, who also won the Democratic nomination for a third term, apparently was a gesture to boost his vice presidential stock.

Nixon's showing in Nebraska was by far his best in any of the spring primaries. He is not an announced candidate for the nomination but has said he would accept it.

Missouri Republicans chose six delegates, two of whom were instructed to vote for Goldwater and two of whom said they favor him. The other two are uncommitted.

Rhode Island Republicans blocked an effort by Goldwater supporters to increase their strength on the state delegation, but at least two of the 14 are for the senator. One is for Rockefeller, one for Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania and the rest uncommitted.

Cecil H. Underwood, governor of West Virginia from 1957 to 1961, began his quest for a second term with a thumping Republican primary victory over the relatively unknown Republican candidates.

His Democratic opponent in the November election to succeed Gov. William W. Barron—who cannot succeed himself—appeared to be former State Commerce Commissioner Hulett C. Smith. Smith led a field of four.

Sen. Robert C. Byrd of West Virginia easily won the Democratic nomination for a second term. His Republican opponent, unopposed, will be Cooper P. Benedict.

Sen. Roman L. Hruska of Nebraska had no Republican primary opposition for nomination. His Democratic foe in November will be Raymond Arndt, also unopposed.

McNamara's Vietnam Visit Quiet So Far

Before leaving by plane for Washington, McNamara, was also to meet with Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh, South Vietnam's strongman premier.

No important new recommendations on the war against the Communist Viet Cong were expected from McNamara's 30-hour visit, an aide to the secretary said.

McNamara followed up his last visit, two months ago, with wide-ranging recommendations for increased U.S. aid and more American combat advisers, if necessary.

Pidgin English is a highly useful language, spoken by 30 to 50 million people as a second language.

Mancini Mercer

Grammy Awards

NEW YORK (UPI) — Henry Mancini last night won a Grammy, the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences version of the Oscar and Emmy, for "The Days of Wine and Roses," as record of the year.

Johnny Mercer also garnered one of the awards for his collaboration with Mancini.

The other major award went to classical composer Benjamin Britten for "War Requiem," which he conducted with the London Symphony Orchestra and Chorus.

NATO Challenge

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (AP) — Foreign ministers of the North Atlantic Treat Organization met today in a closed session at which Belgium's Paul Henri-Spaak planned to challenge President Charles de Gaulle's campaign to revamp the Atlantic alliance.

Spaak told his NATO collegues he would call on the French to "spell out just what you think is wrong with NATO —and how it should be righted. Otherwise quit rocking the boat."

Air Crash Prayers

CONCORD (AP) — More than 500 mourners prayed yesterday within sight of a tragedy-scarred hill for the 44 persons killed there in last Thursday's mysterious air liner crash.

Today digging resumed for evidence in buried wreckage that might establish whether the discharged revolver already found was used to shoot one or both pilots.

Condition Poor

Richard Thomas, 21, of 96 Redwood Road, San Anselmo, who suffered a broken right leg and head injuries when he was struck by a car in Kentfield Friday night, was reported in poor condition today at Marin General Hospital.

Panama Vote Hit

PANAMA (AP) — Government candidate Marco A. Robles is Panama's new president-elect, on the basis of nearly complete returns. The pro-election favorite, ex-President Arnulfo Arias, denounced the outcome as a "most scandalous fraud."

Returns from 1,039 of the 1,144 precincts gave Robles an 11,066-vote margin over Arias —124,830 to 113,764. With seven candidates in the field, Robles got about 40 per cent of the total vote.

Arias claimed official figures released by the Election Tribunal were spurious and said the people would not tolerate violation of their will.

May Recognize China

The HAGUE, Netherlands (AP) — Canadian Foreign Minister Paul Martin has told the North Atlantic allies that Canada may recognize Communist China next year, Canadian sources said today.

But Martin reportedly made clear to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's foreign ministers that Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson's government is not going to make any sudden, rash moves.

Nikita Mobbed

ASWAN, U.A.R. (UPI) —Thousands of cheering Egyptian laborers mobbed visiting Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev today when he symbolically completed the first stage of the Aswan Dam by dropping a stone into the River Nile. Khrushchev appeared unruffled, and he seemed to be enjoying the pandemonium despite the uproar and temperatures that hit 108 degrees.

Bridge Winners

NEW YORK (UPI) — Italy defeated the United States to win the World Bridge Olympaid last night by a score of 158-112. In taking the 60-deal final match, the Italians captured their seventh world championship. The Olympaid had begun May 1 with 29 nations entered. In a contest held to decide third place, Great Britain defeated Canada in a 60-deal match 108-97.

Atomic Ship Due

COPENHAGEN (AP) — After six years, the Danish government has agreed to allow an atom-powered American ship to visit Copenhagen. The merchant ship Savannah will arrive Aug. 25 for a seven-day visit.

Six years ago the government denied the atomic submarine Skate permission to pay a courtesy visit to the capital.

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman said today Malaysia will not retreat from its demand that all Indonesian guerrillas withdraw from Malaysia before a second summit meeting is held with Indonesia and the Philippines.

Car Struck In Rear --Driver Is Injured

William Nolan Wade Jr., 32, of San Pablo was treated for a bruised neck and back early today at Marin General Hospital after his car was struck from the rear on the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge, 500 feet east of the west end of the bridge, at 21:30 a.m.

A truck driven eastbound by Frederick Victor Kinsey, 22, of Lynwood, was attempting to pass Wade's car when it hit the rear end of his vehicle, according to the California Highway Patrol.

Spaceport Growing

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla (AP) — In March 1964, the working population at this missile and space center was about 29,000. Experts forecast it will increase to 48,000 by 1966 as the Apollo man-to-the-moon program enters its early test launching phase.

HIGH SCHOOL TO HOLD FAIR

These two Terra Linda High School seniors will be among the entertainers at the school's fair Friday and Saturday. They are David McCawley, who will be master of ceremonies for the hourly shows, beginning at 10 a.m. Saturday and Sandra Eginberger, who sings folk songs in such languages as Russian, Yiddish and Portuguese. Also planned for the two-day fair is an aquacade, featuring student divers and swimmers, at 8 p.m. both days.

cept the low reserves if it were understood that the board will seek an increase in the general purpose tax for the elementary school district next year. Board member John M. Bagshaw took the same line, only a little more bluntly:

"Reserves don't bother me at all. If we run out of money, we go to the people and say, 'We're broke. What are you going to do about it?' "

"You could get a champagne appetite that way," board member Bella H. Aaron said.

Current general purpose tax for the elementary school district is $1.75 per $100 of assessed valuation. In addition there are over-rides totalling 13 cents and 24 cents levied for bond interest and redemption, a total district tax rate of $2.12.

Corona suggested the board consider adding an override tax for the educationally handicapped program. He also recommended the board that state law now permits another override tax to cover alleged additional cost of junior high education.

Corona recommended a salary schedule for teachers in both districts with a range from $5,200 to $10,606. It would have 14 steps for annual increases. He estimated cost in each district at about $80,000. In addition there would be $20,000 in each district to cover recommended raises for administrators.

The San Rafael Chapter of the California Teachers Assn. had asked a salary schedule ranging from $5,250 to $10,690 with 13 rather than 14 steps, and $150-a-year bonus pay each year for someone who has been at the top of his pay scale for five years or more.

The current salary schedule ranges from $5,100 to $10,030.

Bettini asked that Corona prepare payroll cost studies on a teacher salary schedule that would range to a top of $10,500 instead of the $10,606 Corona recommended.

These figures will be considered when the board meets again at 7:30 p.m. next Tuesday.

Superintendent Spots Juvenile Hall Escapee

A 16-year-old Novato youth who escaped Marin County Juvenile Hall yesterday was back in custody shortly after when spotted in Marinwood by Dave Fogel, hall superintendent.

Fogel told Marin County sheriff's officers the boy had entered the unlocked home of a girl friend in Marinwood and stole a turtle-neck sweater and chewing gum. He was seen wearing the sweater by Fogel at 3 p.m. at Miller Creek Road in Marinwood.

Principal Is Hired At Tomales

David L. Rafo, seventh grade teacher at Isabel Cook School in San Anselmo, was hired Monday night as the new principal and eighth grade teacher at Tomales School by Tomales Bay School District trustees.

He replaces Floyd Billigmeier, who resigned effective June 30.

Trustees gave final approval for district policies and regulations compiled by Billigmeier, and signed an agreement with the county superintendent for a speech therapist for one-half day per week next school year.

The Marshall school picnic will be held June 8 at Samuel P. Taylor State Park. The Tomales School picnic will be held June 11 at Dillon Beach.

A citizen's meeting on the unionization election will be held next Monday night at the Tomales School.

The board set its next meeting for June 15 because the regular meeting date is the night before graduation, which will be June 9.

County Fair Cakes Too Good

Youngsters who exhibited poultry found themselves harvesting egg dividends each day, due to force of habit on the part of their prolific layers. They sold the eggs for a nickel each to Rotary Club members who were managing the food concessions.

Some of the girls who entered cakes for judging apparently did too tempting a job of baking. Someone—Judges? Pilferers?—made several of the cakes vanish before it was time for the contestants to take them home.

Hoover, McCone Due At Warren Commission

WASHINGTON (UPI) — FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover and John A. McCone, director of the Central Intelligency Agency, are to appear before the Warren Commission tomorrow to tell what they know about President John F. Kennedy's assassination and its aftermath.

The seven-man commission, nearing the end of its exhaustive inquiry, gave no reasons for calling Hoover and McCone. Both, however, have denied suggestions that Lee Harvey Oswald, the accused assassin, had been involved with their agencies.

tion as children in Central and Bayside schools.

"At this point CORE decided to organize the May 18 boycott of all four schools."

Sponsors of the school, in addition to CORE, are Rev. J. P. Henry, pastor of the First Missionary Baptist Church; Rev. Samuel L. Banks, pastor of Village Baptist Church, and Rev. Donald Schilling, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, all in Marin City.

No child will be allowed to enter the freedom schools unless he has his parents' permission, said Quiett. He added that "we have been registering last week and this week and response has been tremendous. We anticipate between 300 and 400 pupils."

Quiett said that a location for the school for fifth through eighth graders has not yet been selected.

"We picked the date because we felt it was pretty symbolic of the Supreme Court's desegregation decision of 1954," he said. The decision was on May 17, but since this falls on a Sunday, the strike was set for Monday.

Quiett said there will be a similar boycott of about 8,000 students in Oakland on the same day, sponsored by CORE, the National Assn. of the Advancement of Colored People, and an East Bay freedom movement.

that he was a potential candidate for appointment to controller if Cranston wins the Senate seat now held by Sen. Clair Engle (D-Calif.) Unruh replied that the best thing that could come out of this campaign would be legislation to strip the controller of his power to appoint appraisers.

He noted that he has always supported legislation to take away the appointment power from the controller and place the appraisers on civil service.

Unruh said he'd continue to remain neutral—or "perhaps a non-belligerant is a better word to describe it"—in the race for the Democratic senatorial nomination.

Both men agreed that new taxes were almost certain next year.

Unruh said he'd support "with some minor changes" Burns' compromise Long Beach tidelands oil revenue bill, designed to increase the state's share of the tidelands funds.

State Court Turns Down Defendant's Attempt For Writ

The State District Court of Appeals in San Francisco denied a writ of prohibition to halt the murder trial of Robert Lee Jones and John L. King for the slaying of Donald G. Corbett Jr., 31, Sausalito.

Jones had asked the writ on grounds that he was indicted on hearsay.

The court denied the writ without comment.

Jones said former Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety of Marin County obtained the indictment by having King's story of the case repeated to the grand jury. Jones contended this amounted to guilt by association.

Jones and King were arrested in Hawaii after a cross-country spending spree which made use of Corbett's credit cards.

Aviatrix Arrives In Long Beach

LONG BEACH (UPI) — Blonde aviatrix Joan Merriam returned to her home town today after completing an around the world flight and was greeted by a crowd of friends and civic officials at municipal airport.

About 250 persons were waiting when she landed her twin-engine Piper Apache on a flight from Oakland, the finishing point yesterday of her 27,000 mile trip.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Apartment house residents on Northeast 54th Ave. walked out to the street one morning to find car doors lower than the curb.

Sergeant McKamey said Zelaya emerged, dressed only in T-shirt and shorts. The money was found in his clothes on the boat, the officer said, but there was no trace of the weapon.

Zelaya was identified by McCarrick in line-up at the sheriff's office. He has a three-page "rap-sheet" starting with being a run-away from Fricot Ranch School for Boys in San Andreas.

On Dec. 19, 1952 he was sent to Chino State Prison for possession of marijuana. He was sent to San Quentin March 27, 1953, for possession of narcotics and assault with a deadly weapon.

On Feb. 6, 1956, he pleaded guilty in Marin Superior Court to assaulting John H. Ransom. with a pair of sissors on Jan. 25 of that year while they both were prison inmates.

Zelaya was paroled last Aug. 19.

Petty Thefts Reported In San Rafael

Three petty thefts, two believed to be the work of juveniles, were reported to San Rafael police yesterday.

Ronald Tavia Simon reported two sets of wrenches, valued at $35 to $40, were stolen from his unlocked tool box at Rossi Body and Fander Shop, 595 Francisco Boulevard, between 4:30 p.m. Tuesday and yesterday morning.

James Shell Gray, delivery truck driver for San Rafael Auto Parts, 24 Francisco Boulevard, reported that a boy about 16 stole his transistor radio, valued at $12 from a company truck while it was parked at the rear of the business lot yesterday afternoon. Gray said the boy earlier had offered to buy the radio and he refused to sell it.

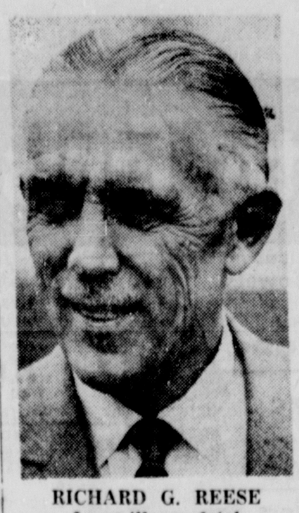
Julius Herbst of 36 Martens Boulevard reported at 11:20 p.m. yesterday that someone stole a flashlight and flares from the glove compartment of his car which was parked in his carport.

Two Injured In Novato Collision

Two persons suffered minor injuries about 11 p.m. yesterday in a two-car accident in front of 871 Grant Avenue, Novato, police reported.

Albert Louis Narcissi, 50, of 574 Louis Drive, Novato, backed his car out of an angle parking place on Grant Avenue. It was hit by a car driven by Millie Juliane Sturm, 79, of 170 Beattie Road, Novato.

Both drivers were treated at Novato General Hospital, Mrs. Sturm for facial bruises and Narcissi for head bruises and a back strain.



RICHARD G. REESE

OBITUARIES

Oil Exec Richard G. Reese Dies

Richard Griffith Reese of 437 East Strawberry Drive, Strawberry, oil exploration manager for Kern County Land Co., died yesterday in a San Francisco hospital after several weeks' illness.

Reese, 61, spent two years as chief geologist in Alaska for Standard Oil Co. of California, and six years as chief geologist for Canadian operations of the Hudson Bay Oil and Gas Co. In 1958, he became manager of Kern County Land Co., Calgary, Alberta, office, and a year later moved to Mill Valley, taking charge of the firm's domestic and foreign oil exploration.

A native of Nebraska, he was graduated from University of Nebraska in 1923.

He was a member of Delta Upsilon fraternity, Sigma Gamma Epsilon geological fraternity, Sigma Delta Chi journalism society and the American Assn. of Petroleum Geologists. He was a past president of the association's Pacific Coast section.

Surviving are his wife, Mai Sohst Reese, two brothers, Donald Reese of Jackson, Miss., and Henry Reese of Hollywood, a sister, Mrs. Marjorie R. Carson of Pasadena, a son, Richard G. Reese Jr. of Los Angeles, a daughter, Mrs. Joel B. Coulter of Bakersfield, and eight grandchildren.

Private funeral will be held Friday in Glendale.

Tributes may be in the form of donations to the KCL Foundation, 600 California Street, San Francisco, for the Richard G. Reese Memorial Fund to aid professional students.

Dean Jennings Out Of Race—Health Reason

Dean Jennings announced today he is withdrawing as a candidate for city council of the proposed City of Tiburon in the June 2 election.

Jennings said that as the result of an annual checkup, his doctor advised him that he has diabetes. He said he would enter Marin General Hospital today for further tests.

Jennings said it would not be "fair to the voters" under the circumstances for him to be on the council were he to be elected, and that his doctor had told him his health is more important than being elected to the council.

There are now 17 candidates for city council, Ernest Nevers having also withdrawn his name.

Convict Defending Self Against Knife Charge

Jury trial of Russell K. Dillard, 25-year-old San Quentin inmate charged with illegal possession of a knife, began in Marin Superior Court yesterday.

The indictment alleges Dillard, serving five years to life for robbery in Los Angeles County, had the knife last Jan. 26. He is defending himself in trial. Prosecuting is Deputy Dist. Atty. W. L. Mackey.

Meeting Postponed

A meeting of the Lynwood Park Improvement Assn. scheduled for last night at Lynwood School was postponed for one week, according to Mrs. James Appleton, secretary.

HAMILTON BASSO

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (UPI) — Hamilton Basso, 59, a magazine editor who became one of the nation's best-selling novelists, died in Grace-New Haven Hospital today after a long illness.

In 1942 he became a contributing editor of Time Magazine and in 1944 associate editor of New Yorker. He wrote his first novel, "The World From Jackson Square," with his wife. He followed this with "The Green Room," "The View From Pompey's Head" which became a best-seller when it was published in 1954.

C. M. COLEMAN

Charles Matthew Coleman of 416 Calle De La Mesa, Ignacio, longtime editor and public relations man, died in a Modesto hospital today after a brief illness. He was 87 years old.

Coleman moved to Marin four years ago, living with the family of his step-daughter, Mrs. Willis Spitzer.

He was a native of Alexandria, Va. He graduated from University of California at Berkeley in 1901 and joined Associated Press in Los Angeles as day editor. At that time the night editor was the only other employee in the bureau.

Two years later he joined the Los Angeles Examiner as it was being organized. He was put in charge of the copy desk. Later he became city editor of the Los Angeles Examiner and moved to city editorship of the San Francisco Examiner.

He was also city editor and managing editor of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer and city editor of the San Francisco Chronicle. In 1926 he quit newspapering to become director of public relations for the San Francisco Stock Exchange. In 1933, he joined Pacific Gas and Electric Co., working with the company in public relations for 20 years. He retired 10 years ago, writing the 100-year history of the company as one of his last jobs.

He was the 1903 president of the Pasadena Tournament of Roses Assn.

His first wife, Emily, died in 1922. His second wife, Sadie, died in 1954.

In addition to Mrs. Spitzer, he leaves a son, Norton Coleman of Modesto; a daughter, Helen Coleman Barry of Exeter, N.H., five grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Halsted and Co. in San Francisco.

ELIZABETH GOMES

Mrs. Elizabeth Gomes, 54, of 11 Central Drive, Mill Valley, died last night in a local hospital after long illness.

She was a cook, having worked last at Ondine Restaurant in Sausalito and prior to that for Sam's Anchor Cafe in Tiburon. She resided for about 15 years at 11 Central Drive.

Here's how

San Anselmo Public Works Building Voted

New engineering offices for San Anselmo's public works department will be built behind the city hall for $4,532 by contractor A. Von Rotz.

The city council last night approved the contract with Von Rotz by a 3-to-2 vote. Councilmen Arthur W. Smith and Woodrow Capurro cast dissenting votes, not against the contract with low bidder Von Rotz but against construction of the addition.

Smith and Capurro pointed out that addition of the engineering office would eliminate three parking spaces under the library building.

Von Rotz submitted the lowest of four bids, which ranged to a high of $5,392. The job will be completed in about a month.

City councilmen also authorized hiring a junior civil engineer at $600 per month for a three-month period to help Public Works Director Arnold R. Sypher.

Councilman Smith, who opposed creation of a public works department in the first place, voted for the junior civil engineer only because it is for a temporary period. He said he would oppose permanent hiring of another engineer.

L. J. Zander Estate Valued At A Million

Louis Jeff Zander, 61-year-old San Rafael resident who died April 9, 1962, left an estate with a clear market value of over one million dollars, an inheritance tax appraiser's report revealed yesterday.

Exact value was $1,068,996.

Zander, owner of National Auto Parts of San Rafael, had resided in San Rafael 40 years. He left $967,546 to his wife, Frances Betty, residing at the family home of 7 M'Liss Lane; $5,625 to his brother, Jack Zander of Ross, from whom he took over the auto parts business, and $19,160 each to the Archbishop Hanna Center for Boys in Sonoma County; St. Vincent's School for Boys, north of San Rafael; pastor of St. Raphael's Catholic Parish, San Rafael; Guide Dogs for the Blind and Marin County Humane Society.

More Hearings Tonight On Sausalito Fill Issue

The Sausalito Planning Commission will continue its public hearing at 8 p.m. today in City Hall to decide on recommendations to the city council on proposed rezoning and land uses for Sausalito Properties, Inc., and on a proposed bay fill moratorium.

The company seeks a temporary use permit to fill its property between Johnson and Napa streets outboard of Humboldt Avenue for a commercial-residential marina development.

Misplaced Water Pipeline Is Grief For Terra Linda Builder

Workers sinking a caisson for a new addition at Terra Linda High School got a surprise when they broke through a six-inch fire main, a line that was not supposed to be there.

Architect Carl F. Gromme, in a letter to the San Rafael Board of Education last night, said this was a mislocation done during original construction five years ago. He said he did not know about it and did not authorize it. The pipe was placed 13 to 14 feet from where it was indicated on his plot plan, he reported.

He recommended that cost of damage and relocation be covered through the contractor's insurance policy. General Contractor Ray Johnson has already referred the matter to his insuror, according to Charles L. Condrotte, business manager for the schools. Condrotte said the error was probably the fault of a subcontractor.

Kent School Principal Selection On Agenda

A new principal for Kent School probably will be hired at a special meeting of the Kentfield School District Board set for 7:45 p.m. Monday at Wolfe Grade School.

Supt. Howard C. Harmon said selection of the new man will be one of three items on the special agenda. The board also will take another look at how the planned extension of Wolfe Grade to Bon Air Road may affect a proposed six-room school addition, and will discuss the 1964-65 budget.

Tam Club To Install

School Board Offers Job To Ohio District Official

William Carl Jordan, 52, assistant superintendent of elementary instruction in Euclid, Ohio, has been offered a similar job for San Rafael City Schools.

The San Rafael Board of Education, after many months searching, agreed to offer Jordan the job during a brief closed session early today.

Later in the morning, Jordan accepted the offer by telephone.

Jordan will be offered a two-year contract at $15,000 a year, starting Aug. 1. He would replace Dr. Mildred B. Barnard, who left at the end of last school year to take a job at Oakland State College.

Jordan has worked with schools in Portland, Ore., and in San Francisco. He went to Euclid two years ago.

He has a doctorate in education from Harvard.

McCabe, Orchard To Be On KTIM

George E. McCabe of Santa Rosa and Merle P. Orchard of Ukiah, Democratic candidates for congress from the First District in the June 2 primary, will speak on Radio KTIM's "Sounding Board" at 9 a.m. tomorrow.

Rep. Donald H. Clausen (R-Crescent City) faces no primary contest and declined an invitation to speak on the program.

The hour-long program, moderated by Kitty Oppenheimer, will be rebroadcast by tape at 12;30 p.m. Sunday.

Authors, Artists To Assist Mill Valley Library Drive

Authors and artists will answer questions and discuss their work with children at a library fair from 3 to 5 p.m. Friday at the Outdoor Art Club in Mill Valley.

The fair is particularly to emphasize the need for a new library building in Mill Valley, said Mrs. Clement Hurd, chairman.

Authors include Evan G. Valens, who writes on science; Charles Einstein, who writes on sports, and Lillian Pohlmann, who writes historical books.

Artist Clement Hurd will demonstrate wood block printing. Mrs. Florence Heymann, who studied with Andres Segovia, will play guitar. Continuous story hours will be conducted for youngsters by Mae Durham, Barbara Dillon, Joan Dillon, and Bee Thorpe.

Balloons and refreshments will be sold. There will be book exhibitions by Maggie Grant, who runs the Grey hound Bus depot bookstore, and Mrs. Jenna Roth, who operates the Redwood Book Store, and a display of block print materials by the art store.

Kentfield Meeting

A special meeting of the Kentfield Civic League, dealing with next month's vote on whether elementary school districts in the Tamalpais Union High School District should be unified, will be held at 8 p.m. May 26 in the multi-purpose room of Adaline Kent School, according to Allen G. Wright, president of the league.

All Rotary Clubs To Meet Monday

Annual joint meeting of all Rotary Clubs in Marin County will be held Monday noon at Dominic's Harbor Restaurant in San Rafael, it was announced today by the Rotary Club of San Rafael, this year's host club for the event.

Rep. Don H. Clausen (R-Crescent City) will address the combined memberships of the Mill Valley, Novato, San Anselmo, San Rafael, Sausalito, and the newly organized Terra Linda clubs. His "Report from Washington" will bring the members up to date on a variety of legislative matters of interest to Marin.

Trainee Honored

Pvt. Michael P. Gallagher, son of Mr. and Mrs. James U. Gallagher of 51 Martling Road, San Anselmo, has been named a distinguished trainee in Company C, First Battalion, Third Brigade, during basic infantry training at Fort Ord. Gallagher was graduated from the University of San Francisco this year.

Reed Trustees Oppose Tam Unification Plans

Reed school district trustees spent much of last night's meeting discussing proposed unification of a Tamalpais Union High School district, then voted to oppose it.

The board passed a long and detailed resolution opposing "the present unification proposal being presented to the voters on June 2, 1964" and pledged "its full support of such alternative proposals of small size which will meet all of the state criteria for a sound unification plan and not just most as is the case with the present proposal."

The resolution passed by a vote of 4-1, with Mrs. Marilyn C. Steinau, who is a candidate for the unified high school district board, voting "no."

Mrs. Steinau read a long statement opposing the resolution including these words, "my opinion and the opinion of a majority of school board members in this area, and all but one superintendent in this area and the entire membership of the state board of education is that this proposed unified district does meet the state criteria."

A number of arguments both pro and con in regard to Tamalpais High School district unification were discussed.

The board approved employment of Robert J. Hamilton as principal of Granada School after having heard from Supt. Edward C. Pino that the state allocation board had released $290,606 for construction of the first portion of the school.

Three new teachers were hired for next school year: Anna M. Berry, Gillespie P. Baker Jr. and Mary K. Healy.

The Reed school district trustees also:

1. Passed a resolution endorsing the November school finance initiative measure sponsored by the California Teachers Assn. after hearing a presentation by Harry Fosdick, a publicist for the Teachers Association.

2. Approved removal of dead eucalyptus trees from the Granada School site at a cost of $2,380.

3. Reappointed Dalton, Graupner and Barber, accountants, to audit the district books for fiscal year 1963-64.

4. Approved disrtict participation in the county audio-visual and library programs at a total cost of $6,570.

Church Leader Quits In Protest

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The top lay leader of the Unitarian-Universalits Assn. protested the church's "19 Century administration" yesterday and resigned.

Dr. Marshall Dimeck of Bethal, Vt., moderator of the church, announced his resignation to 1,500 delegates at the national convention here.

The Unitarian and Universalist churches merged three years ago. "Before the merger, the administrations were smug, complacent and isolationist," Dr. Dimock said.

"The present proposals of many of our current leaders still fall in that 19th Century tradition."

Russian City Hit By Quake

MOSCOW (UPI)—Tass news agency said today many victims were claimed by a strong earthquake which unofficial reports said leveled Ashkhabad, the Turkmenian oasis captial of about 150,000 persons.

Tass said a quake of force five hit the region on the Iranian border at 2:50 p.m., destroying many apartment houses and claiming "many victims" in Ashkhabad.

Tass did not elaborate on casualities or damages, in keeping with Soviet official reticence on disasters. Unofficial reports said the city was leveled.

Intoxicated Driver Gets Fine Of $386

George James Ballard, 44, of 72 Girard Avenue, Sausalito, was given a suspended five-day jail sentence and fined $386 yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving.

He was arrested last Oct. 8 in Mill Valley and originally entered a plea of innocent. The sentence followed a guilty plea today in Judge Leonard A. Thomas's court.

Lebec, Kern County, is reported to have been named for Peter Lebec, a Hudson's Bay trapper, who was killed in 1837 near the fort by a grizzly bear he had wounded.

Korean Orphan Car Wash Set

A group of elementary school pupils in San Anselmo will wash cars Saturday to raise funds to support a Korean orphan boy they have "adopted" through the Christian Children's Fund.

The pupils from Isabel Cook and Wade Thomas schools will be working at the Richfield Service Station at 100 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, San Anselmo, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

At a recent cupcake sale at Isabel Cook School, the group netted $16.65, reported Theodore Gill Jr. of 124 Seminary Road, originator of the project.

Board Gives Ark Dwellers Six-Month Sewer Reprieve

Ark dwellers on Richardson Bay were given a six-month reprieve yesterday by the board of supervisors, provided they install temporary chemical toilets in their arks and houseboats.

The decision was a compromise suggested by County Sanitation Director William L. Desmond, after it was learned there was no chance of having an assessment district for sewers for the area underway June 1. That date had earlier been set by the supervisors as deadline for hooking the floating homes to sewers or abandoning them.

Attorney Donald Gerson, representing the Houseboat Owners Assn., said the ordinance requiring sewers should be repealed or an extension on time allowed.

Desmond scoffed at the idea of repealing the ordinance. He said he was prepared to start evicting ark dwellers June 1. However, he agreed to the delay when it was noted that the Sausalito-Marin City Sanitary District was willing to force an assessment district for sewers but was encountering delay in locating easements for sewer lines.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr explained that location of the easements must await decision on pierhead and bulkhead lines in Richardson Bay. The board has set a hearing June 11 to hear a recommendation from the planning commission on this matter.

Desmond estimated rental of chemical toilets would cost each resident $18 to $25 a month.

Ark owner Dean Jennings said he would rather have no toilet units at all and go to court over the question than have these units forced on the ark dwellers. However, he said he was speaking only for himself, not the association.

Search Party Finds Wreck, Bodies Of Stockton Fliers

PLACERVILLE (AP)—The fire-scarred wreckage of a light plane missing since April 30 was reached today in a box canyon 40 miles east of here.

The burned bodies of two Stockton National Guardsmen were inside.

Ironically, one of the victims, Lt. Col. Robert L. Stimson, 45, twice had survived being shot down by the Japanese while flying in World War II and was rescued from remote islands for a return to duty. The other victim, Capt. William J. Becker, 41, also was a World War II veteran.

Supervisors Approve Use Of Jail Inmates To Clean Streets

The Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday agreed to a proposal by the San Rafael City Council that county jail prisoners be used to clean litter from San Rafael streets.

But Supervisor Peter Behr said no prisoner should be forced to perform the work. He said he was worried about "chain gang" aspects of the idea.

The proposal came to the board in a letter from San Rafael Mayor John F. McInnis, who said Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos agreed such work details would probably benefit the prisoners.

Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker said he felt the idea had merit, especially since the city would be responsible for the custody of the prisoners while they were working. Leydecker said other cities could make a similar arrangement.

Supervisor George H. Ludy at first said he would vote against the proposal because there was a major need for litter policing on roads in the unincorporated area. He changed his mind, however, when the rest of the board agreed to ask for a report on a county litter program from the sheriff and public works director Donald R. Frost.

Mill Valley Homeowner Reports $650 Burglary

Frank B. Long, 934 Greenhill Road, Mill Valley, told Marin County sheriff's officers yesterday hi shome was entered and about $660 worth of items taken.

Deputies said entry was made sometime yesterday by prying o living room's sliding glass door. The house was ransacked, they said, and a television set worth $500, old coins worth $100, and a $50 ring taken.

Special Meeting Called On Sausalito Needs

The Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday called a special night meeting for June 17 to discuss with the Marin County Housing Authority and trustees of the Sausalito school district problems of financing construction of Manzanita School, Marin City.

Supervisors agreed the county does not intend to give major financial aid to the construction. Supervisor Peter H. Behr said it appeared to him that the district would have to float a bond issue.

The meeting was requested by the housing authority, which reported federal funds would be granted to the school district once the school is completed, if money can be found for the construction in the first place.

Behr said Sausalito voters might be more willing to vote for a bond issue if the county "responsibility" in the area, where little property tax is being collected, were determined and made known.

Marin Woman Hears Charges

Mrs. Beatrice C. Clark, 53, of 122 Bretano Way, Greenbrae, was arraigned in federal court in San Francisco today on charges of embezzling $30,000 from savings and loan accounts where she worked.

Mrs. Clark was scheduled to enter her plea in Judge William Sweigert's court May 27.

She was indicted by a federal grand jury last month on charges of taking a total of $30,000 from two savings accounts at the Federal Savings and Loan Assn. in San Francisco where she was assistant treasurer.

Five-Year Plan Told For San Pedro Road

County Public Works Director Donald R. Frost yesterday presented a five-year program, expected to cost $2,453,000, for improvement of Point San Pedro Road from Embarcadero Way in San Rafael to Biscayne Drive, near the point.

He said about half the cost of the project, as proposed, would be paid by the city, since the road goes in and out of the city several times.

However, County Supervisor William D. Fusselman predicted that by the time the road is completed, it will all be in the city.

Frost divided the project into five phases, each to cost about $500,000. In the first year, however, he said the full amount should be spent on acquiring right of way.

Earlier San Rafael city officials had said that the city plans to start construction at the end of the road near Embarcadero Way next spring.

The supervisors voted to invite the San Rafael city council to meet with the board June 17 to discuss the question of timing for the road.

In Frost's proposal, construction from Embarcadero Way to Marina Drive would be budgeted two years from now, as the second phase of the project. Right of way would also be purchased during that year from Marina Drive to Lochinvar Road.

More right of way in the same area would be purchased in the next year, along with right of way to Riviera Drive, and construction would go ahead between Marina Drive and Margarita Drive.

The next year, phase 4, would see right of way purchases for the project completed, and widening started to Lochinvar Road. In the year after that, construction to Biscayne Drive would be finished.

Frost said both city and county have completed some right of way purchases for the phase 1 area, and that farther out the right of way has been reserved. However, he added, his proposed 1964-65 budget includes only $200,000 for right of way for the entire county road system.

"We may have to have a bond issue," commented chairman William A. Gnoss.

"You're not contemplating doing the work then," answered Supervisor Fusselman, "because they've turned down a bond issue already in the past."

College Foundation Nominations Given To Committeemen

Fifteen names of proposed members of a College of Marin Foundation board were submitted last night to the committee which is setting up the foundation.

The names will be made public after the June 9 meeting of the committee.

The committee decided that it would start accepting contributions mailed to the college for scholarships and loans. The committee will also start a "Dollars for Scholars" drive aimed at getting small contributions. This would consist of a $1 donation per person.

Sanitary Area Plan Discussed

Hugh Dougherty, president of the Stinson Beach County Water District, outlined the procedure for forming a sanitary district at a meeting of the Marin Coast Chamber of Commerce last night at the Gibson House in Bolinas.

Among those attending were several residents of the Point Reyes area who are considering forming a district there, according to H. M. Greene, chamber secretary.

The chamber's next meeting will be June 9 at a place yet to be determined.

'NORTHGATE NORTH' PLANS APPROVED

San Rafael Commission Unanimously Favors New, Detailed Drawings For Development

Plans for Northgate North, a bone of contention between the City of San Rafael and developer Douglas M. Christensen for well over a year, were approved in jig time last night by the San Rafael Planning Commission.

Essentially, the plans were the same as those which have been repeatedly rejected by planning commission and city council. But in detail, they were far different —and far more complete.

Acting Planner Daniel P. Coleman reported that since the plans were last returned to the planning commission by the city council two months ago, the developer had presented a "very, very complete and detailed set of plans and all information requested by the planning staff."

Said Coleman, "We think everything is in pretty good order now."

Changes in the master plan provided for free right turn lanes from and to Freitas Parkway. Curb cuts were reduced. Two service stations were placed farther from the parkway street frontage. Complete landscaping details were included.

The master plan provided, as before, for the service stations, an office building, and a motel-convention center. One acre was set aside for the office building and its parking. Included in the master plan was a complete plan for the motel-convention center, although Coleman warned that details of this might be subject to change and that the developer was considering a hospital as a possible alternative use.

"I think the restrictions and controls are probably as great as any that have been presented to the city," said Coleman.

He read only the major ones, saying "it would take three hours to read the whole list" of specifics — to all of which Christensen had agreed.

At insistence of Commissioner Orlando Conti, one more restriction was added: "Spell out 'no apartments' so someone like Corte Madera won't happen." (He obviously referred to Madera Village on Tamal Vista Drive in Corte Madera, which was built with a motel permit, included a kitchen for each unit, and is now advertised as "motel apartments.")

William G. Corrigan, attorney for Christensen, said that restriction was agreeable too.

In granting architectural approval for the service stations, the commission provided, at suggestion of Coleman, that both have walls faced in the same type of rock. Originally, the Texas Co. had prepared plans for a rock-faced building, but Standard Oil Co. of California had proposed using brick facing. Standard Oil agreed by letter to the change.

Many of the changes and restrictions in the plan were made to satisfy the residents of Rafael Manor, cooperative apartment project which overlooks the site, located across Freitas Parkway from the Northgate Regional Shopping Center.

With master plan, use permits and subdivision all approved unanimously, Christensen arose to say:

"I must say that your planner has taken a great responsibility for the success of this . . . The 160 families of Rafael Manor are well pleased . . . Now we can start moving dirt."

"Not yet! You need an excavation permit first," reminded City Engineer Dominic J. Selmi.

Rafael Woods Rezoning Passes By Split Vote

The portion of Rafael Woods fronting on Meyer Road was rezoned to require a 20,000-square foot lots by 6-1 vote of the San Rafael Planning Commission last night.

The 6-1 vote was typical of several of those by which the commission whisked through its agenda in one and one-half hours. Dissenter on the Rafael Woods rezoning, which doubles the lot size, was chairman Pat Hetherton. On three other matters, the dissents were by Orlando Conti.

Zoning of Loch Lomond Highlands, previously unclassified, for single family dwellings with 10,000-square foot lots, was approved unanimously.

Other San Rafael Planners' Actions:

1. First public hearing on rezoning of Porto Bello West, from unclassified and duplex to planned community, with 14 units on 1.6 acres, brought no objection to a new plan calling for access only from Aqua Vista Way except Conti's statement that he would insist on landscaping rather than a paved area proposed to provide six extra parking spaces.

2. C. V. Whitlach's request for a three-lot subdivision on D Street west of Wolfe Avenue was put over to May 26 to permit Whitlach to submit a new plan.

3. Tentative map of Highland Vista Sundivision 2, on an extension of Ridgewood Drive above Tamalpais Cemetery, with number of lots reduced from 45 to 38, was approved unanimously on Conti's motion. Alan Kay is owner and subdivider.

4. James McCone's request for a four-lot subdivision at Linden Lane and Glen Park was approved unanimously, subject to requirements including a sewer main extension and additional off-street parking due to sub-standard street width.

5. Action on Earl J. White's application for six-lot Shady Acres subdivision on the north side of Irwin Street, and Kenney Homes Inc.'s application for 59-lot Terra Linda Unit 22 was put off until May 26.

6. Fred Pape was granted a permit and architectural approval for a car wash at Francisco and Belvedere boulevards with new plans which Acting Planner Daniel P. Coleman described as embodying "some very radical changes." Conti voted "no."

7. An addition to the Dominic's Restaurant building on Francisco Boulevard, requested by Crocker-McDevitt Enterprises, was approved unanimously.

8. Action on architectural approval of an office audition to a 14-unit apartment building at 912 Lincoln Avenue, requested by P. Rosenberg, was delayed to May 26 for the applicant to present plans showing alterations which would be made in the existing building.

9. A two-unit addition to a residence at 221 West End Avenue, in an apartment district, was approved unanimously for applicant E. Alvarez.

10. Action on Robert Antoniolli's request for a two-lot subdivision at Bungalow Avenue and McCoy Road was put over to May 26 at request of Coleman.

11. Final map of resubdivision of 47 lots of Marin Bay Unit 2-A, providing for fewer, wider lots, was approved unanimously, although Conti at first objected to changing the lot lines because the area is in an easement district.

12. Renewal of an expired tentative map for the portion of Bellam Subdivision in which lots front on improvements being financed by East San Rafael Assessment District No. 2 was granted 6-1, Conti voting "no."

13. James Mahoney was granted a one-year permit to operate a heavy metal fabrication yard at Lisbon Street and Bellam Boulevard, Conti voting "no."

14. Marin Unitarian-Universalist Church was unanimously granted a permit for a church building in Marin Professional Center, with a proviso that the city attorney must approve agreements by property owners freeing the city from liability for future extension of Channing Way past the church property.

15. A sign for the Red Kettle pancake shop in the Montecito Shopping Center was approved 6-1, Hetherton this time voting "no."

Terra Linda May Start New Group

Directors of the Terra Linda Community Services District will be asked a report tonight on a proposal to form an association of homeowners covering the entire Terra Linda Valley.

The meeting is set for 8 p.m. at the Terra Linda Community Center.

Directors will also learn precise costs to homeowners in the knockabout area of annexation to the community services district and the Terra Linda Recreation and Parks District.

SCHOOL SITE COSTS WORRY TRUSTEES

Funds Far From Adequate To Purchase Enough Land In San Rafael Canal Area

Land for a school site in San Rafael's canal area is going to come dear to the San Rafael Elementary School District.

Business Mgr. Charlecs L. Condrotte told the board last night that the district's $150,000 allocated through its recently passed bond issue, would purchase only four acres. In addition it would cost about $25,000 for three feet of fill over the site.

Condrotte also investigated property near Highway 101 between the Marin Motor Movies and San Quentin. This has recently been purchased by Wood and Associates of Oakland, which is drawing plans for a complete community in the area, Condrotte said.

Land in this area could be purchased for about $50,000 an acre, he reported.

School members blanched at the price. Board Member Bella H. Aaron urged land at some other location not too far outside the canal area be purchased, with pupils to be transported to school by bus.

Supt. Bert C. Corona said the transportation cost would continue with the district forever and the extra price for the canal site would soon be paid off.

Mrs. Aaron said the district might do away with providing transportation.

"Don't think I haven't been thinking of doing away with transportation," board chairman C. Paul Bettini said.

Bettini wondered if Short, Davidson and Laurel Del Intermediate schools might be expanded to take care of the extra load from growth in the canal area. His suggestion came up during discussion of locating four classrooms for hard of hearing pupils.

Corona would like to see new classrooms built at Short School, freeing classrooms at Laurel Del Intermediate for the hard of hearing.

Board members did not want to make any decision on this suggestion until after they decide how they will handle pupils from the canal area.

The San Rafael Board Of Education Also:

1. Accepted with regret the resignation of Lewis G. McCall, director of maintenance, operation and transportation for city schools. He will leave in July to take a similar job with the San Luis Obispo School District.

2. Accepted resignations of six elementary school teachers: Judy Boss, Mrs. Loretta C. Bulkley, Mrs. Norma Desberger, Kristeen Hall, William L. Hashman, and Mrs. Norma Starnkovich, and of two high school teachers, Richard A. Gest and Francis L. Sievers.

3. Heard a presentation from architect A. Mackenzie Cantin, one of four being considered to design schools and school additions authorized by the recent elementary school bond issue.

4. Authorized construction of a sidewalk four feet wide on the north side of the Terra Linda High School parking lot. Cost is estimated at $1,300.

5. Approved final drawings for the construction of 24 classrooms and a library at San Rafael High School. Bids will be asked as soon as federal approval is given the plans. The state approved the plans last week.

6. Granted leaves to Providence Frassinello, fifth grade teacher at MacPhail School who will do volunteer work for the Catholic Church in depressed areas of the U.S. next year, and Mrs. Edith Shafer, third grade teacher at San Pedro School who will teach in teacher training school at Pago Pago, Samoa, next year.

7. Authorized call for bids for improvement of the playground at West End School where a drain will be extended and an apartment building razed. There is $9,500 budgeted for this project.

8. Accepted with thanks gifts of climbing bars for kindergarten pupils from the Gallinas School Parent-Teacher Assn., of $250 to rebind National Geographic magazines from the Davidson, P-TA; of library book purchases by Short, Harrell and Laurel Dell, P-TAs; of two radios by the MacPhail P-TA, and of $250 for darkening drapes, phonographs, a public address system and records by the San Pedro P-TA.

9. Hired as elementary school teachers for next school year Ronald J. Arturi, Margaret E. Baker, Susan Heil, Kenneth G. Majors and Mrs. Fabia-Ann Phillips, and as high school teachers James M. Darrymple and George B. Kovic.

Contractor Agrees To Terms For Installing Drain Pipe

The running battle in San Anselmo over the installation of a 30-inch drainage pipe at 439 The Alameda was settled last night.

Developer Harry H. Johnson of Mill Valley, who is building two homes at that address, agreed to install a concrete headwall with grate in front of the pipe to prevent debris from clogging the pipe and causing floods.

Rudolf Eichenbaum of 106 Deer Hollow Road, whose property has been flooded in the past, said he was satisfied with Johnson's proposal.

San Anselmo City Council Also:

1. Set for May 26 public hearing to determine whether a full time director of parks and recreation should be hired. Dwight Nelson, chairman of the parks and recreation commission, said a full time director is necessary if the city's recreation program is to succeed. The salary of such a director would be about $7,000 per year.

2. Gave first reading to an amended garbage ordinance. Among the amendments are a clearer definition of "dwelling," provision to set fees on garbage containers in excess of 60 gallons, collection of refuse from wire baskets on streets, and spelling out the city's right to enforce garbage disposal under the city's health powers.

3. Introduced an ordinance updating the old library ordinance that was drawn up in 1914. Action on the ordinance was deferred at the request of Louis Yates, representing the library board.

4. Authorized off-duty police officers to serve as school crossing guard at Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and Rosa Avenue. The former special officer, Edward Tyrell, resigned to take another job.

5. Approved appointment of John F. West of 21 Crescent Lane to succeed James Cowperthwaite, resigned, on the city planning commission.

6. Asked City Administrator Douglas J. Flautt to nail up big walk at ice boxes that are located on the Sorich Ranch at the end of San Francisco Boulevard. Councilmen Woodrow Capurro said the ice boxes are hazards to children.

7. Approved a new job, automotive custodian, for street department employee Rocco J. Durante, who is unable to do regular work overnight. He will get $202 per month for half-time work in the city corporation yard, cleaning, washing and polishing.

Inverness PUD Elects Chairman

William Thompson was elected chairman of the board of directors of the Inverness Public Utilities District last night.

He replaced Ray Randall, who retired from the board, as chairman Stewart W. Purcell, appointed by the Marin County Board of Supervisors to replace Randall, attended his first meeting last night.

The board, which controls the Inverness Volunteer Fire Department, agreed to extend the radio mast on the fire house to improve reception in Second Valley. It also voted to put a radio in Inverness Coffee Shop to proprietor Richard Graveson, who is also fire chief, can monitor the radio calls.

Three-fourths of the area of California is composed of rolling hills, foothills, and mountains ranging in elevation from 500 feet to 14,000 feet.

Dixie Board Is Due Library Discussion

The Dixie School Board tonight will take up the question of increasing staff for school libraries and make a decision on the purchase of equipment to start a foreign language program in the fall.

The meeting will start at 8 p.m. at the district office, 35 Trellis Drive, San Rafael.

Board Delays Eichler Plan At Strawberry

After hearing protests from Tiburon Peninsula residents, the Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday delayed for two weeks action on Eichler Homes' proposal for a subdivision on Strawberry Point.

The major protest was against plans to grade the tops of two knolls, partly to create fill for an island to the east of the peninsula.

Mrs. Thomas E. Stanton of Belvedere compared the grading plan to cutting a head off at the brow and distributing the brains and skull around the shoulders.

"That happens to us from time to time here," commented Supervisor William D. Fusselman.

Mrs. Margaret Azevedo of Tiburon said she would rather see high rise apartments than have the knolls graded. She said that Eichler and the county planners should have shown more imagination in the project, which calls for 99 lots on the point and 109 lots on the island.

Ralph Walters of Walters-Flood, Inc., appeared to review his proposal for five tower apartment buildings on the point, and said the Eichler project would conflict with it. He said a court battle was being waged over who owns the land.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr said the supervisors will have to assume the applicant, Eichler, owns the land. He said Walters-Flood should seek a court injunction, not a stoppage of action by the board.

However, the board agreed to ask County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney for an opinion on the question of land ownership by May 26.

Mrs. Stanton recalled that the county master plan calls for the knolls to be left as open areas.

First Three Larkspur School Grades Day To Be Lengthened

The Larkspur School District board last night voted to lengthen the school day in the first three grades in the district.

Supt. Milton S. Cohen said this was done so more instruction could be given pupils in these grades.

School day in second and third grades will be increased 20 minutes — to 290 minutes per day. First graders will be increased 15 minutes, at Larkspur-Corte Madera School and 10 minutes at other schools, to make the school day 235 to 245 minutes long.

The Larkspur School District board also:

1. Heard Jack Ward, supervisor of buildings and grounds, report that school buildings, particularly at the Neil Cummins School, are badly in need of repair for which there are no funds.
2. Approved an audit contract with Dalton, Graupner and Barber for $650.
3. Decided to wait until after the June 2 tax-bond election to decide whether the contract with television station KQED would be renewed for about $1,800.
4. Decided that no drive would be held in the district's schools but students could contribute money for the John F. Kennedy Memorial Library in Boston.
5. Hired Judith Anne Dickson of San Francisco as primary grade teacher at Neil Cummins School and Roland Carr of Orinda as seventh and eighth grade teacher at Henry C. Hall School.
6. Accepted resignations of Linda Lonsbrough, fourth grade teacher at Neil Cummins, and Dartha Hopkins, sixth grade teacher at Larkspur-Corte Madera School.
7. Terminated the employment of Marguerite Siemens because of a lack of funds for the dental hygienist program next school year

More than 23 million Americans 18 and older have completed less than eight years of schooling. Included in the figure are 8 million over 25 that have completed less than 5 years.

Sausalito Trustees Back Integration In Housing

The Sausalito school board also:

1. Voted to increase the budget of the child care center at Marin City from $23,325 to $29,500 per year.
2. Instructed Supt. Marcus F. Davis to get more estimates on repairing of the Manzanita School roof and replacing the heating system in Richardson Bay School cafeteria.
3. Approved continuance of the special education program and one day per week employment of a psychologist and a coordinator of compensatory education, through the county schools office.
4. Saw a 10-minute film on outdoor education at Camp Lokoya in Napa county during the week of May 4 in which fifth graders from the district participated, and heard from Davis that the program was "very successful" and a second group left Monday.
5. Held a closed session on proposed hiring of a principal to take the place of Morris Brown at Manzanita School, but made no appointment.
6. Accepted resignations of Brown, and of Laura Langford, Richardson Bay eighth grade teacher; Mrs. Shirley Hahn, school nurse; Mrs. Marcene Adams, central third and fourth grade teacher; Cesare Claudio, instrumental music teacher, and Cornelius Friesen, bus driver.

Woman Still Missing From Mill Valley Home

Mrs. Gertrude Kavesh Jones, 43, of 301 Richardson Way in the Mill Valley area, was still missing today, Marin County sheriff's officers reported.

Belvedere Rec Members Named

Rev. L. A. White and Mrs. Edward R. Rice III, newly appointed members, were welcomed to last night's meeting of the Belvedere Recreation Commission.

"All at Sea," starring Alec Guinness, was announced as the commission-sponsored Friday night movie scheduled for 8 o'clock in the Belvedere Community Hall.

The discussion of teen-age summer activities was continued, according to Mrs. R. A. Bunker, secretary.

Mill Valley Annex Foes Due Hearing

Residents of Tamalpais Valley have a place to protest against Mill Valley's annexation plans: The Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission.

John F. Barrows, assistant county administrator and executive officer of the commission, said today that protests from neighboring residents will be heard and considered by the commission when it meets at 8 a.m. tomorrow at the Civic Center.

Barrows said a comment by Mill Valley City Mgr. Bert A. Belmer that "Tamalpais Valley people have no legal protest" might be true as far as the Mill Valley City Council is concerned but does not apply to the local agency commission.

"Tamalpais Valley people are obviously interested. Their tax rate may go up as a result of the annexation. The commission will hear them," Barrows declared.

He took issue also with Balmer's statement that the state law setting up local agency formation commissions in all counties was designed to prevent such areas as Tamalpais Valley from incorporating.

He noted that the local agency commission can control formation of new cities — and likewise annexations to existing cities.

"Improper annexations will be disapproved in the same manner that improper incorporations will be disapproved," he declared.

Bolinas-Stinson Educators Get Backing From Trustees

Bolinas - Stinson School District trustees last night gave Supt.-principal Michael M. Auer and the teaching staff of Bolinas School a 4-1 vote of confidence.

Clerk Arthur A. Carpenter voted "no." He said he believes the upper grades need more facilities, more teachers and better supervision.

The resolution passed by the board declared:

"We the trustees believe that our teaching staff and principal are working for constant improvement in an education program of a creative nature and have confidence that their endeavors will continue."

Bauer has been under fire in the editorial columns of the Pacific Sun, a Stinson Beach weekly newspaper. Merril Grohman, Sun editor, and his wife transferred their three children to the Mill Valley School District.

Trustees decided to meet May 26 at 8 p.m. at Bolinas School to discuss the 1964-65 budget.

They requested that the county superintendent of schools office conduct a curriculum evaluation of the district. They accepted a contract to provide a speech therapist from the county one day per week during next school year.

Stolen Car Was His

Pierre Arretche of 46 Ida Street, San Rafael, said today the car stolen from in front of his home Saturday was registered in his name. He wanted to correct the impression in an earlier Independent-Journal story to the effect that the car was registered to the San Rafael branch of the Crocker-Citizens National Bank which financed Arretche's purchase.

State Banking Unit Turns Down Novato Bid

The State Banking Department yesterday announced it has denied an application of Robert D. Carrow and associates to establish a new bank, to be known as the Pacific Home Bank, in Novato.

Directors of the proposed bank will meet tonight to discuss the turndown, Carrow said.

"We are extremely disappointed in the state's action concerning our aplication," said Gordon Walker, who heads the group planning the bank. "I am recommending to the others that we carry further action to the State Banking Department."

The bank was proposed to be capitalized at $850,000. Carrow said "39 of the 41 founders were business people and residents of Novato."

The State Banking Department last week granted permission for Bank of Marin to establish a branch in Novato.

Two Dogs Take Care Of Snake

Terra Linda firemen yesterday were called to the home of Henry G. Kleck of 1085 Las Ovejas Avenue to remove a rattlesnake which was thought to be in a flower bed drain pipe.

They were unable to find it, and as things turned out, they still didn't learn if it was a rattler.

After abandoning the task and returning to the firehouse, firemen learned by telephone that a snake of some variety had slithered out of the pipe. It was immediately pounced on by the family's two pet dachshunds.

When the dachshunds got through with it, Kleck told the fire department, there was not enough left to tell what kind of snake it had been.

Now They're Trying For Seed In Pineapple

HONOLULU (AP)—Pineapples don't have seeds, and the food market shopped probably does not care one way or the other anyway.

But this fact has irked horticulturists in Hawaii—one of the greatest pineapple growing areas—for years, so the University of Hawaii and the Pineapple Research Institute of Honolulu have teamed up to find out why the succullent, yellow pineaple is barren.

Chief Chiesa Warns On Unlocked Cars

San Rafael Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa today urged motorists to keep their cars locked when unattended to prevent petty thefts.

If a motorist is going to leave his car unolcked, he should take the precaution of putting anything of value in the trunk of the car and locking the trunk, Chief Chiesa said.

Air Force Chow Hall Gets Feminine Touch

HONOLULU (AP)—For the first time in the history of Wheeler Air Force Base near Honolulu, a woman is supervising the pantry.

Wheeler's new food service officer is First Lt. Rilly A. Griffee, who has a home economics degree from Western Michigan University.

'Cluster' Housing Wins In Novato

The Novato City Council over-rode protests by West Novato residents last night to clear the way for cluster housing in Robert's and Aguirre's Pleasant Valley subdivision by 4-to-1 vote.

Only Councilman J. Wayne Womack voted against the approval.

The developers were granted rezoning of about 20 acres west of Sutro Avenue and north of Center Road from limited agricultural to planned single family residential. This would permit grouping the homes in a flatter portions of the land.

The plan calls for 7,500 square feet of land area per dwelling, but part of this will be in undeveloped land to be set aside for recreation.

Bob Roberts of the devolopment firm said each house would have a 4,000-square foot lot, with the recreation area to include a swimming pool and other facilities as well as undeveloped land.

Womack asked City Planner Robert Lagle if it would not be possible to group houses close together in the valley and call unusable hillsides the recreational land. Lagle said it was possible.

Womack then said he would not vote for the rezoning without seeing a plan for the subdivision. None was presented.

Lloyd S. Brooke of 520 Davis Avenue, objected to more than six houses per acre.

Jack O. Burgi of 575 McClay Road, speaking for the West Novato Homeowners Assn., said, "We want the rural character of west Novato perserved." He said the association was opposed to cluster housing as such.

"This looks like an abandonment of the principle that density decreases at the slope increases," said James Cuzner of 2230 Oak Knoll Road.

"Lord help us in the future!" exclaimed William A. Lehigh of 848 Sutro Avenue in opposing the rezoning.

The council also granted a use permit to John and Mary Musser for a swimming school at their home at 808 Reichert Avenue.

The Novato City Council Also:

1. Appropriated $750 to the Jun-Chamber of Commerce for the Western Weekend celebration June 17-21, and waived the carnival license fee of $700 for the celebration.

2. Passed the uniform animal control ordinance. Councilman William Jack Adams objected to an anti-vivisection clause in the ordinance, but voted in favor of it anyway.

3. Authorized City Administrator J. Julien Baget to write the state highway commission asking that the Grant School property be offered for sale at a lower price. This was done at the suggestion of Richard Nave, president of the Novato Chamber of Commerce.

4. Introduced a nuisance and anti-litter ordinance which makes it illegal to litter the street, and gives the city power to clean up debris on private property and charge the cost to the property owners.

5. Postponed for two weeks selection of a bank to handle city finances.

6. Introduced ordinances which would eliminate the requirement for the mayor's signature on city checks and empower the city administrator to sign agreements which have been approved by the council.

7. Passed an ordinance prohibiting excessive acceleration of cars.

8. Approved standard rules and procedures for employer-employee relations prepared by Baget as recommended by the League of California Cities.

9. Accepted a safety refund dividend of $567 from the state compensation for the good safety record of city employees in the 1962-63 fiscal year, and $100 from the Novato Community Club for the children's theater group.

10. Appointed Mayor Robert D. Carrow and Councilman Adams to an annexation committee to meet with the residents of the Parkwood subdivision and other areas to consider annexation to the city.

11. Continued for two weeks hearing on turning the old Novato cemetery into a pioneer memorial park. B. F. Collier of 2004 Novato Boulevard asked for the continuance so he could talk to Russell and Gooch, owner of 60 per cent of the cemetery, about cleaning it up.

12. Approved changes in the Loma Verde master plan, changing 60 acres from multiple to single family and nine acres from single family to multiple, as requested by Trousdale Corp. The council also approved exceptions to the tentative subdivision map of Marin Oaks unit 1 for the same area. These are to have sidewalks adjacent to the curbs and three lots with less than 40-foot frontage.

13. Approved a lot split at 1464 Pastel Lane requested by Joseph P. Laufer.

Speed Limit Clamped On Hamilton Roads

The Novato City Council passed an emergency ordinance last night to regulate traffic on service roads on both sides of Highway 101 near Hamilton Air Force Base.

"The frontage road will be open to the public before a regular ordinance could be enacted," said Police Chief Robert di Grazia in asking for the emergency ordinance.

The ordinance places a 25-mile-an-hour speed limit on the frontage roads. It calls for stop signs on the east frontage road to stop traffic at the main gate and north gate to Hamilton, and on Dusel Court and Los Robles Road before they enter the west frontage road.

Parking is prohibited on both sides of the frontage roads.

The council also prohibited parking on the north side of Plum Street from Chase Street to Olive School, and a two-hour parking limit on the south side of Vallejo Street from First to Second Street and on the east side of Second Street from Grant Avenue 160 feet north.

B-B Pellets Fired At Home, Autos

Howard Dawson of 129 Camino Alto, Mill Valley, reported to Mill Valley police at 10:50 a.m. yesterday that two plate glass windows at his home were broken by B-B pellets and that a chair had also been damaged.

The report was one of five such reports within two days, said police.

Someone fired a B-B shot at the window of Kenneth J. Baune's home at 127 Buena Vista Avenue, he reported at 7:05 p.m. yesterday.

Ross Benson, Mill Valley director of public works, reported he heard what sounded like B-Bs hitting his car at 4:25 p.m. Monday while he was at Camino Alto and Sycamore Avenue.

Dale Martin of 125-A Bolinas Road, Fairfax, told police at 8:45 p.m. Monday his vehicle had "just been shot at" near Camino Alto and Sycamore Avenue at 8:54 p.m. Monday, Henry Kruger of 11 Almenar Drive, Greenbrae, reported the left rear window of his 1964 Ford had been "shot out" in the same area.

Carnival-Dance Set At Novato

Novato High School's annual associated student body carnival-dance will be held Friday in the old gymnasium.

The carnival will start at 5 p.m. and continue until 8:30 p.m., whence the dance will start. Dancing will end at 11:30 p.m.

Each club, organization and class is sponsoring a booth for the carnival.

Principal To Speak On Student Control

Redwood High School Principal Donald Kreps will speak at an information meeting sponsored by the school at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Banducci at 354 Elm Avenue, Corte Madera.

Topic will be "Student control policies—do they work and what can parents do to make them work?" It will deal mostly with cars and smoking.

The last in the series of information meetings will be at 8 p.m. May 28 at the Redwood Little Theater. Jean Bolton, executive director of the Florence Crittenton Home, San Francisco, will speak on "The unwed parent—whose responsibility, the parent, the community, the school or the church?"

Lack Of Quorum

The Larkspur Planning Commission meeting last night was called off because of a lack of a quorum. The meeting, at which a 12-story retirement residence planned for the Greenbrae area of the city will be discussed, will be held next Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the city council chambers.

OTHER PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

By HARRY CRAFT

New Idea To Making Painting Easy Is Dreamed Up In Marin

A new product of Kimball-Schmidt, Inc. (formerly Kimball Manufacturing Corp.), San Rafael-based manufacturer of water skis and other plastic items, is so simple you're inclined to wonder why no one ever thought of it before.

This is a new paint brush that never needs cleaning. It has a lifetime handle with changeable tapered foam-plastic heads instead of the usual bristles. Use it on that trim job and throw away the head. Two more come with your original purchase and you can always pick up extras, which are inexpensive.

When dipped, it absorbs paint evenly and lays on the coat without streaking, according to the company's president Klaus D. Schmidt. He does not claim it to be an all-purpose brush, and the "K-brush," as it is called, comes only in sizes up to two and one-half inches. Rough surfaces and large production jobs can be handled to better advantage with a bristle brush. But for 'round-the-house, touch-up work, varnishing, staining and painting trim it's just the thing.

One lady has already found still another use for it—as a basting brush.

Production is already under way, Schmidt says. So far the K-brush is being handled in Marin by Thrifty Drug Stores, Fuller Paint Stores and the Food Mart.

A HOME FASHION and art show at Lachman Bros., San Rafael, throughout next week will feature a quarter-million-dollar collection of paintings from the Maxwell Gallery Ltd., San Francisco, according to store manager George E. Lawrence.

The colection will include the works of Degas, Roualt, Soutine, Chagall, Utrillo and others. W. H. Kilpatrick, Bay Area interior decorator and art expert, will be at Lachman's picture department Friday evening and all day Saturday to give information on selecting and displaying fine oil paintings. Lachman's has brought in nearly 300 paintings, framed and unframed.

Among new home furnishings on display will be the Avant group of living pieces by Kroehler, now on display at the New York World's Fair, and the Bolero group of bedroom and dining room furniture. Both groups are currently featured at the Lachman exhibit at the Home Furnishings Exposition in Brooks Hall, San Francisco.

The store will be open Monday evening as well as Friday evening.

GASBERG'S photographic studio and gift shop at 1311 Fourth Street, San Rafael, has been purchased from Mrs. Ruby Middleton by Dorothy and Frank Rode of Novato who have already done quite a bit of remodeling and will bring in some new stocks. Rode has been a photographer in Southern California for about 30 years.

The name will continue as Gasberg's, and the Rodes expect to have the place officially open for business in about another week.

A NEW OFFICE BUILDING is planned by contractor Bruce Wolper for 412 Red Hill Avenue, San Anselmo. This is between the Douglas Oil Station and the R. E. Nolan and Son offices. There's an old building there now which will have to be torn down. New structure will be early California design, two stories and have about 11,000 square feet of floor space to be leased out. Construction should start in four or five weeks.

REAL ESTATE SALES in Marin under multiple listing held up in April, with $4,873,365 recorded. This was 7 per cent under March sales, but 37.5 per cent better than April, 1963, and involved 29 per cent more transactions.

CONGRATULATIONS to Radio KTIMarin on its 17th birthday this month. Since 1961 this station has operated on both AM and FM.

NO CLEANING NECESSARY—"K-brush," a new product of Kimball-Schmidt, Inc., is a plastic-foam paint brush with changeable heads to be thrown away after each job. The San Rafael manufacturing firm claims it to be non-streaking and ideal for amateur use. It is now being distributed through paint and hardware stores.

Another Record Is Announced

PHILADELPHIA — Another record first quarter with profits up 15 per cent over the same period in 1963 was reported today by International Telephone and Telegraph Corp.

President Harold S. Geneen told shareholders at the company's 44th annual meeting that net income for the first quarter was $12,322,000 while sales and revenues increased to $354,389,000 for the same period.

These represented gains of 15 per cent and 12 per cent respectively over the first quarter of 1963, when net income totaled $10,663,000 and sales and revenues were $317,707,000.

Bank Purchases School Bonds

SAN FRANCISCO—A Bank of America underwriting syndicate has purchased the $951,000 bond issue of the Ravenswood City School District, San Mateo County.

The Bank of America group paid a premium of $539 for a combination of 5, 3¾, 3¼, 3.40, 3½ and 1/20th of 1 per cent bonds. Net interest cost to the district was 3.47 per cent.

The bonds were reoffered to investors to yield from 2.40 to 3.60 per cent, according to maturity June 15, 1965-85. The bonds maturing in 1986 were not reoffered.

Hoover Ship Sale Is Off

SAN FRANCISCO — President George Killion of American President Lines has announced that the sale of the President Hoover to Mr. and Mrs. Arnold J. Swanson would not be accomplished.

Swanson had intended to buy the ship for use in inter-island sailings in Hawaii under the organizational name of Hawaiian Monarch Line.

Dividend Declared By Safeway Stores

OAKLAND — The board of directors of Safeway Stores, Inc., has declared and authorized a quarterly dividend of 45 cents per share on its common stock payable on June 29.

Quarterly dividends of $1 per share on Safeway's 4 per cent preferred stock and $1.075 per share on the 4.30 per cent convertible preferred stock, both payable on July 1, were declared. All three dividends are payable to stockholders of record on Monday, June 1.

Worrying Starts Just When Things Look Good

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — The more everyone is assured that everything's wonderful, the more some people start worrying about what might happen.

Stock price averages make new highs every little while. So the slightest temporary bobble in the upward line tends to exaggerate fears that a downturn is at hand. Or the very trend of the market itself makes some fear that a speculative boom could be set off, leading to another crash.

Employment increases and so does the total of personal incomes. And that general feeling of well-being generates fears that new wage demands may trigger another wage-price spiral. In a time of little inflation, preachers are heard more and more often warning of the chance that future inflation could do great damage to the economy and hurt more people than it would seem to help.

Profits are well above a year ago. And even profit margins are gaining a little after a long drop. And that sets off warnings lest business be inspired to make the most of a good thing and raise prices — and thus chill consumer buying desires at home and trading opportunities abroad.

Business is announcing plans to spend a lot more for new plants and equipment. But along with the rejoicing at the stimulus this will give to economic growth, the fear grows that shortly the nation will be plagued once more with a glut of idle industrial capacity. A variation is worry lest the increased production facilities will make competition so keen that some of the new plants will falter, while older ones will be forced to close.

It all seems to shake down to this:

Few can find much in the present state of the economy to worry about. It's near a record height in most of its components. It has few excesses currently visible that might assure future doom. It has problems, like unemployment and poverty and labor-management quarrels over automation. But as a general proposition today's economy is unusually healthy.

And that's where two lines of thought split off. One holds that the economy still isn't healthy enough — because the problems aren't solved — and that it must be stimulated further. The other holds that everything is so good, perched on so high a pinnacle, that the history of business cycles points to a time when dangers will arise and the economy's very exuberance will bring on reaction.

American Airlines Freight Miles Gain

NEW YORK — American Airlines registered an impressive gain last month in air-freight ton miles flown.

Figures for April show that the airline flew 14,803,000 revenue ton miles, a high for the month for American and a gain of 14.3 per cent over the total carried in the same month of 1963. In the first four months of 1964 American flew 55,519,000 revenue ton miles, 12.4 per cent more than in the same period of last year.

WALL STREET

Mild Decline Is Indicative Of Strength

NEW YORK (UPI)—Bache and Co. says the relatively mild decline in stock prices and the ability of the market to absorb selling well "indicated underlying strength."

Bache adds that "it would seem to us that the bulls have the upperhand at this moment and we would look for higher prices in well chosen issues over the near term."

SUMMER RALLY

Hornblower and Weeks notes that public participation in the stock market has broadened without triggering speculative excesses.

The brokerage firm says the market likely will attempt a "traditional summer rally." Caution funds, it adds, seem to be concentrating on oils, utilities, foods retail and tobacco issues.

STRONG UPTREND

Thomason and McKinnon says any market slump likely will be mild. "This would be particularly true if the investing public becomes convinced that the recent comeback marked a resumption of the strong uptrend," it states.

Sherman Clay Store Names New Manager

Margo Margossian of Oakland has been named manager of the Sherman Clay store at 1029 C Street, San Rafael, replacing Thomas Milligan.

Margossian has been with the Oakland Sherman Clay store for three years and was chairman of the housing advisory and appeals board of the Department of Urban Renewal for the City of Oakland.

He is to be married to Beverly Tillman, also of Oakland, on Saturday. The couple will make their home at 155 Canal Street, San Rafael.

Milligan, who recently resigned from Sherman Clay, said he expects to enter the electronics industry. He had managed the San Rafael store since its opening early last year.

Chrysler Sales

DETROIT — Retail sales of Chrysler Corp. passenger cars in the first 10 day sales period in May were 23,782 units, reflecting a daily rate of sales for the period of 2,973 units, the highest daily rate for the period in four years.

Profit Taking Clips Latest Market Rise

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed irregularly today. Trading was active.

Profit taking overtook the latest market rise and some of the recent speculative favorites were clipped.

Calumet and Hecla had about 2 points shorn from its 10-point rise of yesterday. Texas Gulf Sulphur also sank about 2.

International Nickel advanced about 2 and Minerals and Chemicals gained a point.

Gains of around 3 each were scored by Control Data and U.S. Smeltin. Ahead about a point were Haveg Industries and Eastman Kodak.

Prices on the American Stock Exchange were mixed in moderate trading.

Corporate bonds advanced. U.S. Government bonds were mostly unchanged.

Volume for the day was estimated at 5.7 million shares compared with 5.24 million yesterday.

Gains and losses of most key stocks were from fractions to around a point.

Novato Council Fills Planning Board Vacancy

The Novato City Council last night appointed Dr. Merton Shelton of 1364 Grant Avenue, to the Novato Planning Commission.

His appointment came during the regular council meeting after the council had held a closed executive session for an hour before the meeting.

Mayor Robert D. Carrow called the executive session to discuss filling the vacancy on the commission left by resignation of Douglas M. Merrill after he was elected to the council.

Members of the council refused to say how many names had been suggested to fill the vacancy. However, John H. Miklos of 815 Reichert Avenue had been suggested at an earlier council meeting.

Originally the council had called the closed meeting both to fill the vacancy and to discuss the efficiency of the department heads.

Citq Atty. Clark M. Palmer Jr. said the Ralph M. Brown Act would allow the council to meet in a closed session to make the appointment to the planning commission, but not to discuss the department heads .

(The act, a chapter of the California Government Code, permits closed meetings of public bodies only to consider matters affecting the national security or "the appointment, employment or dismissal of an officer or employee or to hear complaints and charges brought against such officer or employee." Some city attorneys have construed this as prohibiting closed meetings on appointment to city commissions.'

Planners May Revoke Permit

A public hearing will be held June 9 by the Mill Valley Planning Commission, to consider revocation of Gerald Misner's permit to construct the Valley Mortuary on Miller Avenue extension across from Tamalpais High School.

Use permits are subject to review and possible revocation if not used within one year. The year has elapsed, said planning aide Jean McLean.

Richard J. Hiatt was appointed last night to represent the commission at an architectural advisory workshop session May 21 at 8 p.m. in city council chambers to discuss a memorial for Herman Hein, the late Mill Valley landscape architect.

Worker Is Bitten By Mill Valley Dog

Jim Baxley, an employee of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., was bitten on the right buttock at 11:23 a.m. yesterday by a German shepherd dog owned by John Hanley, 14 Magdalena Court, Mill Valley, while Baxley was on his job in Mill Valley, he told police.

Baxley, who lives at 116 Ward Street, Larkspur, was taken to a physician for treatment. Police told Hanley the dog must be quarantined 14 days.

Novato's Ace Golfer Barry Hachmyer Tabbed For I-J Prep Of Week Honors

By RICK SKINNER

Playing with butter-smooth consistency, Barry Hachmyer of Novato High School drove and putted his way to selection as the Independent-Journal Prep-of-the-Week.

The 17-year-old senior won his ninth and tenth straight golf matches of the season last week and ran his Marin Athletic League victory string to 12, including the last four matches of 1963.

Hachmyer took up the clubs while in the seventh grade. He was then a victim of Osgood Slaughter Disease, which affected the growth of bones in his knees, making it impossible to compete in other, more strenuous sports. Undaunted by this handicap, the 12-year-old boy would go out to the Indian Valley course in Novato to chop and hack the ball around the links.

"NATURAL"

Within a few years, the clumsy strokes had become powerful drives, and Barry, on his own, was steadily around the course in par or near par. His coach, Jerry Barnacle, calls him "more of a natural golfer than I've ever seen." Certainly Hachmyer's self-discipline and instinct in those early years were responsible for his position today as the MAL's top golfer.

Barry was born in Fort Wayne, Ind., but lived there only a year. His family brought him to San Rafael, and in 1957, the Hachmyers moved to 1426 Dawes Street in Novato, their present home. Hachmyer's father, Robert W., who was a key influence on Barry during the boy's early struggles with the game, is a bus driver with Greyhound, while Barry's mother is self-employed, running the R and M Bookkeeping Company.

Young Hachmyer began his high school sports career as the fifth man on the 1961 MAL champion golf team from Novato. Moving up ever since, he became number one for the Hornets last year, when he either parred or played under par in every match.

In the league golf tournament in 1963, Barry was low medalist with a 72 and was selected to the All-Tournament team. Following the high school season, he entered the Mill Valley Junior Jaycee golf competition and finished second. He went on to the Nor-Cal Junior Jaycee tournament to take third place.

GOLF STAR—Barry Hachmyer, star golfer for Novato High School's team, has been selected Prep-of-the-Week by the Independent-Journal sports staff after winning his 9th and 10th straight matches last week. (Sketch by Jack Lucey)

Hachmyer's scores for the nine-hole matches played in the league this year have almost always been around par. Last week, he shot a one-over 41 against San Rafael, playing in a wind which, at times, reached 40 miles an hour.

Coach Barnacle, who watched Barry play basketball this winter for the MAL co-champion Hornets, was certainly pleased when the 5-11 guard was picked for All-League honors. Yet he admitted concern over the lack of time his star had had for the links.

Barry came out for golf about three weeks late, and within three days was shooting par rounds.

SCHOLARSHIP?

Barry will probably attend College of Marin next year, bringing pleasant dreams to Cal Riemcke, who coaches both the cage and golf teams for the Tars. At Novato, Barnacle is attempting to secure a scholarship for Barry from one of the universities emphasizing golf. He has written to several of the big golfing schools in the southwest, notably the University of Texas and the University of Arizona. "It is still too soon to tell," said Barry, when questioned about the results of these inquiries.

The B-average student seems perfect material for a professional career in golf. Par scores in high school are somewhat more than rare, yet Hachmyer has been doing just that for two seasons. He admits interest in the pro tour at some future date, but right now is more concerned with the more mundane, and dependable, ways of earning his keep.

He says he will definitely wait until after college before considering a career in golf. It would seem, with men like Palmer and Nicklaus pulling in $100,000 a year, that Barry need never worry about taking time off from his studies to play a little golf—it just might be worth cutting classes for.

Redwood Net Team Still Undefeated

Redwood High School's tennis team remained undefeated in the Marin Athletic League this season by dumping San Rafael's netmen yesterday, 4-1. In other league action, Tamalpais walked past winless Novato, 5-0, and Drake downed Terra Linda, also 5-0.

Greg Parkerson of San Rafael, who has been the only player to break the Redwood domination with an individual victory, came back again yesterday with a fine win over Sam Mercer. Parkerson is undefeated on the year, and looks good as the first singles MAL champion.

TERRA LINDA STOPPED IN 10TH BY REDWOOD

Throwing Error Gives Hard-Luck Giants Win Over League Leaders

Redwood High School's "hard-luck" ballplayers finally got some of the breaks they have been missing to edge Marin Athletic League-leading Terra Linda in 10 innings yesterday, 4-3.

The Trojans started the scoring in the third frame after a lead-off double by Dan Herrera. John Forry then singled, Bill DiGrazia added another safety, scoring Herrera, and, after a Redwood fielding skull on DiGrazia's hit, Forry continued around to the plate.

Redwood knotted it up in the next inning on consecutive singles by Don Roby and Pat Puccinelli. A walk to Curt Richardson moved the runners along, and then Trojan hurler Bill Lee, who went all 10 innings on the mound, let one get away for a wild pitch, Roby coming home. A passed ball and then Steve Minutoli's ground-out scored Puccinelli.

Redwood went ahead in the fifth on a daring maneuver. With two out, Roby singled, and Puccinelli followed with another. Minutes later, the two executed a perfect double-steal to score the run.

Die-hard Terra Linda was still around, however, and proved it with the tying run in the sixth. After two were out, Herrera singled and powerhouse Forry smashed a triple to get the run in.

After three scoreless frames, Redwood batted in the top of the 10th. The first two men went out harmlessly, but then the tiring Lee allowed Minutoli a free pass. Bill Kilcoyne singled, and the Terra Linda catcher, Don Knotts, trying to make a play on Minutoli, threw the ball into left field, allowing Steve to score easily.

Scott Davi set the Trojans down in the bottom of the 10th to ice the Redwood upset.

Lee, who went seven innings against Drake Friday, winning a two-hitter, was superb yesterday, too. He struck out 14 while walking five, but gave up a few too many hits. Scott Murphy and Scott Davi teamed up for the Redwood win, totaling 12 whiffs while walking just three.

Al Simontacchi's Big Hit Leads Drake Over Tam, 4-2

Al Simontacchi of the Drake High School baseball nine singled across two runs in the sixth to set up the Pirates' 4-2 Marin Athletic League win over Tamalpais High yesterday.

Drake opened the game with a run in the first, when Terry Tadlock advanced to second base on an Indian error, went to third on a ground out, and scored as Don Humphrey also grounded out.

Tamalpais tied it in the fifth on Rick Miller's solo four-bagger, but lost it in the sixth on four Pirate safeties. Lorry Galassi led off Drake's big inning with a single and promptly stole second. Humphrey beat out an infield hit, Damos struck out, and then Simontacchi singled, driving in Galassi and Humphrey with all the runs Drake would need. After Indian hurler Galassi and walked Larry Gerughty, however, Lon Gallagher singled home Simontacchi with an insurance run.

John Hammond added the final Tam run in the seventh frame by rounding the bases on his own. He got on with a single, stole second, took third on a passed ball, and scored on a wild pitch.

On the mound, Charles Locati was just a bit sharper than his Indian counterpart. Locati whiffed nine and gave up three walks, one more in each department than Daniels.

Oklahoma Golf Begins Tomorrow

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — The $40,000 Oklahoma City Open Golf Tournament gets under way tomorrow at Quail Creek Country Club with Arnold Palmer, who won the tournament in 1959, the top attraction.

Three other former winners and four former PGA champions also are in the field.

The former PGA champs are Jack Burke Jr., Bob Rosburg, Jay Hebert and Lionel Hebert.

This is the third year on the 7,042-yard par 72 Quail Creek Country Club course for the tournament. Previously the event was played at Twin Hills Country Club.

From Grid To Diamond

First Frosh Loss

Sam Crowell hurled a four-hit shutout yesterday to lead the San Rafael High School frosh baseballers to a 2-0 victory over Novato High. It was the first loss of the year for Novato.

Drag Winner

Robert Daniels of San Rafael was a class winner at the Fremont Drag Strip Sunday when he pushed his Ford to 85.71 miles per hour in 16.25 seconds.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

NORTH HOLLYWOOD — Tiger Al Carter, 196, North Hollywood, outpointed Manuel Ramos, 198, Mexico City, 10.

Bulldogs Top Novato, 7-4; Ahern Stars

San Rafael High School, bunching its runs in three big innings, drove its way to a 7-4 Marin Athletic League baseball victory over Novato yesterday.

Dan Ahern hefted the heavy bat for the Bulldogs, figuring in the run production in each of San Rafael's sprees. Ahern got three hits and three runs batted in with two singles and a double. Catcher Dan Bell drove in two more for the winners although he went hitless in two trips.

A brilliant display of hitting by some of the Novato batsmen in the final inning netted two runs. Chuck Overmyer, Joe Wright, Ron Rowell and John Dolinsek each blasted a single in that frame, one after another, for the Hornet tallies, but it was too late and too little to affect the outcome of the contest.

Puzzling Case Of Davenport; He's Still Not Full-Fledged Regular

CONNOLLY

Jimmy Davenport has been such a polished third baseman and all-around infielder that most of his well wishers have completely ignored his batting average. One of those eagle-eyed analysts, however, happens to be Manager Alvin Dark of the Giants who doesn't give a hoot about popularity. In baseball matters Dark is as cold as an icebox. If you cut his jugular vein, I think, ice water might pour forth. So despite Davenport's popularity and in spite of the many spectacular plays he has made, Jimmy is not a full fledged "regular." Neither is he what you might say an infield "fixture."

Davenport is nine years out of the bushes and beginning his seventh straight season with the Giants. For him not to be a regular in every sense of the word is puzzling.

In 1955, when he broke in, he had a .363 batting mark in 105 games. But since that time he has never passed .300 and only twice did he creep over .290. One of those seasons where he hit better than .290 was with Minneapolis where he hit .291 and the other was with the Giants in 1962 when he climbed to .297. But for repeated injuries in '62 Jimmy would have been over .300. So what's the story?

ALL SORTS of reason are advanced for Davenport's absence from the Giant regular lineup, either at third base, or at second base. But none of them comes from the headman —Al Dark, who never seems positive on his reasons. Trying to explain Dark's antics of putting Jimmy in-and-out-of-the-lineup is all speculative. But it has been said Dark's reasons for it is because he feels by platooning Jimmy at second base and with an occasional game or two at third base, he minimizes the chances of Davenport getting injured.

Dark thinks Jim Ray Hart and Chuck Hiller are better hitters than Jimmy. All anyone has to do is check over the averages and both Hiller and Hart outrank Jimmy with the bat.

DEFENSIVELY THE Giants are better off with Davenport at either third or second than they are with Hart or Hiller.

The potential hitting of Hart calls for a careful schooling. He is woefully weak at sidestepping beanballs and he is "green," in a sense, so far, against the better pitchers of the National League. So in defense of Alvin we have to say he is using every caution with Hart, who figures, after more experience, to become a really powerful batter who doesn't have to field like the polished Davenport to rate the first nod.

A short time ago Glen Wright, veteran Pittsburgh shortstop and now scouting for the Boston Red Sox, discussed Hart.

"HE'S ALWAYS going to be dangerous with the bat and he is always going to be a risk as a regular on account he has not yet learned to get away from inside pitches," Wright explained. "He leans into an inside pitch and only instinct can eliminate that fault."

Modern day baseball analysts claim a team has to have strength on the wings—(first and third base — and down the middle — (short and centerfield) — to go places in major league baseball.

ON THAT basis Hart, if he hits up to his potential, and Orlando Cepeda, who is the Giants first sacker, would call for some mighty close scrutiny before casting the combination aside.

So while Manager Dark might be termed a Simon Legree in the case of Davenport, he is considered quite a field general for the reason he is playing for high stakes over a long period, if Hart makes good.

MORE TROUT FOR RODEO LAGOON

Rodeo Lagoon, off the southern coast of Marin, will be restocked with catchable-size rainbow trout this week, it was announced today by the California Department of Fish and Game.

Anglers are reminded by the DFG that the restocking is tentative and subject to change, depending on water conditions and other unpredictable factors.

Mays-Marichal Combo Is Too Much For Colt .45's

HOUSTON (AP) — Willie Mays and Juan Marichal of the San Francisco Giants are taking dead aim on two of baseball's most cherished records.

Mays, after slugging two home runs in San Francisco's 6-0 win over Houston last night, finds himself far ahead of the pace set by homer record-holders Babe Ruth and Roger Maris.

Meanwhile, Willie and Juan are playing major roles in tht Giants' drive for a National League pennant. After their heroics last night, San Francisco led the loop by two full games over Philadelphia, Milwaukee and St. Louis. They'll send Bob Hendley, 2-2, against the Colts and no-hit loser Ken Johnson, 2-3, tonight in Houston.

Mays' homers brought to 13 his total through the first 21 games, putting him 16 games ahead of the pace set by Ruth in 1927 when he hit 60 in 154 games, and 21 ahead of Maris' schedule when he hit 61 in 162 games during 1961.

Looking at wondrous Willie's homer pace from another angle, he wouldn't have to hit another four-bagger until San Francisco's 34th game to stay on pace of one homer every 2.61 games—enough to beat Maris' record. He doesn't need another until game No. 33 to maintain the homer every 2.52 games he needs to eclipse Ruth's mark.

Mays also got a single to go with his two homers and raised his batting average to an awesome .478 as he bids to become the first major league player since Ted Williams to hit .400 or better during a full season. Williams hit .406 for the Boston Red Sox in 1941.

Marichal notched his second straight shutout and his sixth victory of the season without a defeat.

He now has posted 12 consecutive victories, including six at the end of last season. The all-time record for consecutive wins is 24, set by former Giant great Carl Hubbel, who won his last 16 in 1936 and his first eight in 1937.

The Colts seriously threatened to score only once against Marichal. That was in the fourth, when Eddie Kasko and Nellie Fox led off with back-to-back singles.

The Giants fire-baller then got Al Spangler on an easy fly to Mays, and ended the inning when Walt Bond grounded into a double play.

Marichal retired 14 men in order between the fourth and eighth innings. He struck out three batters and didn't walk a Colt.

Hardtop Driver's Streak Broken

Dempsey's car spun out in the 19th lap of the 20-lap main event and he didn't finish the race. He was fourth at the time of the spin out. Winner of the race was John Viel of San Jose.

Sohner Hurlers Doubly Sharp

Sohner Tree Service softballers got a couple of one-hit performances from their pitching staff yesterday to win a doubleheader from Capella Brothers.

Dave Shallenburger hurled the first one-hitter for an 8-0 win, and Earl Lowe came back in the nightcap to blank the visitors 3-0. The games were played at Albert Field in San Rafael.

Old Coleman School Finally Is Sold

The third time was the charm. Marin County yesterday sold the old Coleman School site on Grand Avenue in San Rafael.

Only bid for the property was $32,011 by general contractor Richard R. Pelton. The county board of supervisors quickly accepted it, although a 6 per cent commission to a realty broker will have to be paid out of the amount.

The State Division of Highways will take a small portion of the school site for widening of Highway 101, paying the county 10 per cent of the selling price of the rest of the property, so the county has $3,201.10 coming to it from the state.

Sale of the site was tried first last year, but bids were never opened because of a request that the building be turned over at a lower price to a church or charitable institution. After study, that proposal was turned down. New bids were asked, but none came.

Finally, the county decided to use the Marin County Real Estate Board's multiple listing service, and found a buyer.

The board approved the sewer construction project and assessment district for San Quentin Village, after hearing Ann McCorry, who lives on the Greenbrae Boardwalk, complain she had not received a notice of discussions in the village on the sewer project.

The proposal is to hook the sewer line into the treatment plant of San Quentin Prison, but the prison plant's capacity limits the development to be allowed in the village, bringing the protest from Mrs. McCorry.

Piombo Brothers Construction Co., San Rafael, was apparent low bidder of four on the project, at $19,345.18. Walston and Co. was low bidder of five on the assessment district bonds at a rate of 5.2253 per cent, or total cost of $12,380.95 in interest.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors also:

The Marin County Board Of Supervisors Also:

1. Continued to next Tuesday a request that a county-wide youth council be formed.
2. Informally approved a policy of allowing no more than $150 in county money to be spent for staff members taking trips outside the state to conventions.
3. Approved an animal control contract with the City of Mill Valley.
4. Received a report from Marcelle B. McCoy of the Marin Art and Garden Fair and Natalie Holly of the Soroptimist Club that a dispute over location of the club's fruit juice stand at the fair in Ross had been settled.
5. Voted to wire Rep. Don H. Clausen (R-Crescent City) asking that no negative position be taken on a rapid transit subsidy bill until the board can review the legislation. County Administrator Alan Bruce said some money might come to a Marin County transit district, if one were formed.
6. Approved payment of $24,000 to Donald V. Fleenor for the Coyote Creek widening project, in an arrangement whereby .115 acre will go to the county, .040 acre to Walter J. Peterson, and .044 acre to Wayne D. Ellis.
7. Approved an adjustment in zoning for Elbert Ward allowing two houses to be located for 10 years on a lot at Resaca Street and Parral Way, Forest Knolls.
8. Continued to June 16 action on a tentative map for the 19-lot Seadrift Subdivision by William Kent Estates Co. on the Stinson Beach sandspit. Sanitation Officer William L. Desmond said a guarantee was needed that sewers will be installed when available.
9. Granted a use permit for the San Geronimo Valley Country Club to build a golf course on three sides of the intersection of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and the San Geronimo-Nicasio Road.
10. Approved an adjustment for Goheen Enterprises allowing major grading for an eventual road construction to reach the Tennessee Valley Homes subdivision.
11. Set hearing for June 16 on proposed changes in the zoning ordinance restricting residential development on land zoned for industry or commercial uses.
12. Approved a special assessment district for Paradise Cay utilities.
13. Asked that a policy be drawn up that in the future all special assessment district bonds must be sold after bidding, rather than through negotiated sale.
14. Appointed Gudrun Sullivan key punch operator, data processing; John K. Campion, resident deputy sheriff, and Dorothy Glover, physical therapist, health department.

County Accepts Gift For Mentally Retarded

The Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday unanimously accepted an $1,100 gift to equip the county's preschool program for mentally retarded children.

The money will be spent on over-sized tricycles, "running boards" and similar items to provide "neuro-muscular" exercise and help the youngsters prepare for the school, it was explained. Contributing the cash is Edmund Meyer, president of the San Rafael Coca-Cola Bottling Co.

The supervisors heard a report on the project from Daryl Hopkins, county assistant superintendent of schools.

He reminded the board that the county took over the preschool mentally retarded assistance program in 1963.

"It is unique in the whole United States," declared Hopkins. "It is the intent of the county superintendent to make this a pilot program, seeking a federal grant to work with San Francisco State and the University of California."

The program begins at the 3-year-old level, he explained. "We will attempt to literally saturate the children with work in two fields—communication and neuro-muscular exercise," Hopkins added.

Meyer was thanked for his gift and invited to speak by board chairman William A. Gnoss.

"It's in good hands . . . it's a good deed that you're doing here today," Meyer quietly said. "I'll do what I can to get more money for it."

Orchard: Let Seniors Work

Active senior citizens should be allowed to continue working instead of being forced to retire at a certain age, a candidate for Congress told a group of Marin seniors last night.

Merle P. Orchard, Ukiah attorney, spoke at Isabel Cook School in San Anselmo. Orchard is seeking the Democratic nomination for Congress from the First District. Samuel Gardener Jr., Marin co-chairman for Orchard, introduced the candidate.

Orchard suggested that a remedy might be the creation of new jobs for elderly, reducing the cost of medical care, and providing federal housing projects for them.

Savings, Loan Bill Gets Past One Obstacle

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown's bill to give the state more information about the savings and loan industry has cleared the Assembly Finance and Insurance Committee, but whether it can work is being questioned.

The measure by Sen. Alan Short (D-Stockton), was amended yesterday to conform to holding company objections, thereby incurring opposition from the Savings and Loan League, which termed it:

"An administrative nightmare . . . almost an invitation to endless litigation."

In its present form, Savings and Loan Commissioner Frederick Balderston would be able to audit the books of the 40-50 holding companies that control 78 of the state's 204 savings and loan associations. Short said the 78 control $10 billion of the $13 billion invested in state-chartered associations.

Bicycle Auction

Mill Valley police will hold a bicycle auction behind the city hall at 9 a.m. on June 6, Police Chief Dan Terzich said today, to sell bicycle which have been lost or stolen, then taken to the police department.

Board Allows 'George' To Help In Politics

Marin county supervisors cautiously helped bring automation to political campaigning yesterday.

By a 4-to-1 vote—with Supervisor William D. Fusselman voting "no"—the board approved Novato Mayor Robert D. Carrow's request for permission to make a magnetic tape copy of voter registrations recorded in the electronic memory of "George," the county's 1401 data processing equipment.

Carrow wants only the names and addresses of Democrats, explained County Auditor Michael Mitchell. To winnow them from the total list, onto tapes furnished by Carrow, will take about two and one-half hours of machine time, he estimated.

Supervisor Fusselman worried that this might interfere with use of the machine in preparing the county property assessment rolls.

"We've just been told that the assessor will ask for a delay" in reporting the rolls, Fusselman pointed out. "What does Mr. Carrow's request mean? Will it tie up the machines?"

Despite Mitchell's report that the work would be done "on a swing-shift schedule without interference with other county applications," Fusselman declared he could not vote in favor of granting the request.

Both Mitchell and County Clerk George H. Gnoss recommended approval of the Novatan's request. The auditor-controller said he understood Carrow would take his tape recordings to an outside data processing service for use in producing address labels for political mailing pieces.

MARIN FIRE CALLS

YESTERDAY:

1 p.m., Terra Linda—Rattlesnake reported in drain pipe in flower bed at home of Henry G. Kleck, 1085 Las Ovejas Avenue; no snake could be found; owner later reported snake came out of pipe and was killed by two pet dachshunds, but not enough of reptile was left to tell if it had been a rattler.

3:25 p.m., Marin County—Grass fire on Corona Drive in San Rafael Meadows, 20 by 80 feet along railroad track, caused by children playing with matches; no damage.

'Tour des Tables' To Feature Homes In Dominican Area

The Service League of St. Paul's Episcopal Church will combine table settings and a house tour when it presents its second annual "Tour des Tables" from 1 to 4 p.m. on Tuesday.

Homes to be featured will be those of the Walter Bairds, 1644 Grand Ave., E. M. Shanleys, 1604 Grand Ave., Dr. and Mrs. Orville Grimes, 1660 Grand Ave., Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Livermore Jr., 141 Mt. View Ave., and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ciampi, 1417 Grand Ave., all in the Dominican area of San Rafael.

MRS. ROBERT REENSTJERNA, chairman, is featuring unusual tablecloths with interesting combinations of table covers and china. Each home will also have a game table.

At the Baird's home, there will be 10 tables on display. Mrs. David Carey is setting a formal dinner table in the dining room in gold and white Minton China. Mrs. Barker Cates is setting a breakfast table in the study which features a Franklin stove. The living room will have four tables featuring "East Comes West," Thailand runners with black and gold Burmese lacquer ware. "Tea Time Tranquility" an antique Chinese tea set belonging to Mrs. Jasper Nance; a brunch setting on an antique pedestal card table. The game table will have an unique hand carved ivory chess set. The garden will have four tables "Breakfast for Two," a "Kokashi" table by Mrs. Norman Bourke and a table set with yellow and green Italian dishes. A picnic lunch will be set on the lawn.

THE SHANLEYS' home is a treasure of antiques many of which Mrs. Shanley has brought home from her travels in Spain. On her pink Spanish cloth Mrs. David Stewart is using her pink and white Wedgwood. The coffee table in the livingroom will have a Spanish fruit wine set. There will also be a yellow and white breakfast table. A dessert buffet done in shades of purple with roses. One of Mrs. Shanley's blue Spanish cloths will be set with China in the ming tree pattern. Dominoes will be set on the game table.

THE NEXT home to be shown is that of Dr. and Mrs. Grimes. Here, Mrs. John Tyler is setting a Christmas table with Noritake china. In the Living room a dinner for two will be set with Baverian china in a design of flowers and birds. Mrs. John Riley is using a green and white chocolate set which she is calling "The Quilting Bee." On the bar will be a variety of antique decanters. The dining room will feature dinner for four in Wedgwood. There will be a children's table "First Party" set with Noritake's children's china. Mrs. David Vargo is setting a breakfast bar "Top of the Morning." "Hello Young Lovers" is the title of the bridal shower table. "Rouge Noir" will be a luncheon table. Poker will be the featured game.

THE LIVERMORE home is spotted with antiques. A corner desk. Two arm chairs will be used with a children's table. Heirloom demitasses each with a different fruit design. A table with Mrs. Livermore's Copeland Spode apple pattern. There will also be a buffet table "Opening Night," "Watermelon Party," "Ice Cream Social," and "Treen" a table with a burlap cloth, wooden dishes, and a centerpiece of Columbian figures. This home will also feature a table with a hand cross stitched cloth and blue Fitzhugh china set by Mrs. Reenstjerna. Darts is the game of the day. In the living room a table set to serve "Strawberry Soup" before going into the dining room for dinner.

AT THE CIAMPI HOME tea will be served in the pavilian by the pool. The tea chairman will be Mrs. Nance. The tea table will be the featured display. Serving tea will be Mesdames Riley, David Stewart, Bruce Tilden, Harry Rothrock, Ciampi, David Carey, Barker Cates, and Miss Dorothy Sharp.

MARIN'S SOCIAL WHIRL

Luke Doucets Will Celebrate Wedding Anniversary On Trip

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Doucet (Luke Doucet) of Nazareth House in Terra Linda are celebrating their fifty-seventh wedding anniversary in an unusual manner. Their anniversary was in April but soon they are driving to Canada. They will hire a driver for their automobile and will stop en route to visit their son, Robert Doucet, his wife and two children in Portland, Ore. They will go on to British Columbia and do sight seeing along the way.

The senior Doucets were married in Long Island April 23, 1907. He is of French descent and was born in Nova Scotia 92 years ago. His wife, who womanlike, does not wish to reveal her age, was born in New York state. Soon after their marriage, they came to Sausalito where he was in the construction business. Later he was Sausalito's building inspector. The Douchets have another son, W. J. Doucet, who has a garage. He and his family live in San Anselmo. Bill has three children.

JUDGE AND MRS. Jordan L. Martinelli are giving a dinner party tonight at their San Rafael home. This is one of several similar events at which the Martinellis have entertained.

MRS. WALTER TAIT of Loch Lomond, who was graduated from the University of California at Los Angeles, was honored Saturday at the celebration of the founding of the Los Angeles university in May, 1919. Edythe Tait received a bronze medallion, a special award for outstanding achievement in the fund raising campaign for the Memorial Activities Center to be built on the campus. The center will seat 13,000 people and will be used for academic, cultural and athletic activities. Edythe has spearheaded the fund raising in the Marin area.

The award was presented to Edythe by the university's chancellor, Franklin D. Murphy. The celebration was concluded with a dinner dance. Edythe has been active in the UCLA Bay Area Alumni Assn. for 20 years and has held many offices in it. For several years she was Marin County chairman of the alumni scholarship awards committee. Soon she will be scholarship chairman of the entire Bay Area and will be vice president of the alumni.

MARIN ALUMNAE of Alpha Delta Pi sorority will celebrate the founding of the sorority at Wesleyan College, Macon, Ga., Friday. Going to Hillsborough for the celebration will be Mrs. William Shreve of Novato, president of the sorority alumnae and Mesdames Willis Clark Jr., George Fay, Donald McCaw, Clifford Snow, A. L. Stewart, Robert DeVinny, Robert Lashly, Everett Ellis and Alton Fountain.

IT WAS DIFFERENT when the father of a new born child, was honored at stork shower. It was given at the home of Mrs. Robert P. King of Novato. Accepting gifts for the baby was Louis B. Rambke of Fairfax. The shower had been planned for his wife but she was in Marin General Hospital where she had given birth to a daughter, Dorene Louise, that morning. The Rambkes are parents of another daughter, Eva Marie. The circumstances were the same as when little Eva had been born. On that day a shower had been planned for her mother and Mr. Rambke took home the gifts for the newcomer.

RETURNED FROM EUROPE are Mr. and Mrs. James S. Clake, who have a condominium apartment at Peacock Gap. They flew to Rome, then Paris, then back to New York where the Clakes stayed a week and went to the World Fair. En route back to California Mrs. Clake stopped in Houston, Texas, to visit her daughter, Mrs. Virgil Crawley, her husband and five children for 10 days.

MR. AND MRS. Alan Guthrie Wentner leave the Holy Trinity Episcopal Church in Menlo Park following their wedding on Saturday. The bride is the former Cynthia Diane Henderson of Atherton. The parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Lyle George Wentner of Kent Woodlands. The newlyweds will reside in Berkeley. (Jepsen photo)

FASHIONS FOR THE COURT

Rehearsing for the "Camellia Court" fashion show to be presented at the May 19 meeting of the Santa Venetia Junior High School Parent-Teacher Assn., are girls from the home arts class who will display styles they have sewn. From left are Joyce Fernandez, Chris Arnsbarger, Edith Raby and Karen Stern. Mrs. E. J. Hoff is general chairman and home arts teacher, Mrs. Henriette Monteverde, honorary chairman for the 7:30 p.m. event to be held in the school multipurpose room. Mrs. Anthony Bacich will act as moderator. (Independent-Journal photo)

BEAUTY TIPS FROM ME TO YOU
By Dorothy Chapman

Any time after she's turned twenty-five, the average woman will begin to notice the gradual formation of shallow traces of lines, especially near the eyes, for the skin about the eyes is the most active. It is the position of this skin which so determines the expressions of your face. Every emotion in reflected here . . . joy, laughter, love, concern, tension . . . and with increasing age the elasticity leaves the skin, making it more permanently impressionable. Now, every woman knows that these embryonic wrinkles are the inevitable companion of maturity, but their formation can be retarded by the proper use of massage and facial creams. They can be softened by the tasteful application of make-up to those areas affected by your newfound maturity. . . . A shapely figure is a must. Lose fat, lift and tighten abdominal muscles, take inches off hips and thighs.

MAGIC CARPET

Ball-goers To Enter Arab World

The Jolly Rogers Chapter of the Children's Home Society will present "Magic Carpet to the Arab World," their annual Spring Cruise Ball, at the Meadow Club on May 23.

BALL-GOERS WILL enter the Arab world guided by a costumed Arab chieftain down a torch-lit path, through mosaic doorways, into the foyer with its "marble" statues of slaves bearing gifts. Focal point in the dining room will be a huge mural loaned by the United Arab Republic Consulate, as is the statue of Ramses chariot. The invitation folders have a print of Egypt's Temple of Abu Simbel on the cover, a gift of the tourist office of the consulate.

M. Fouad Shadi, director of the UAR Consulate's tourist office, will be a guest at the event as will Farouk A. Mawlawi, director of the Arab Information Center in the World Trade Center.

The route of the Magic Carpet, outlined in the invitation, shows the first stop to be in Cairo, Egypt, for cocktails at the Shepheard's Hotel on the banks of the Nile River, from 7 p.m. Then on to Ammam, Jordan, for a fashion show in the Roman Theatre, among the ruins of the ancient city of Philadelphia, beginning at 8 p.m. Peter Robichaud will commentate and Mrs. Walter W. Derr Jr. will assist the models.

Modeling will be the Mesdames Charles L. Beaty, Rex Minshall, Hugh R. Clever, George A. Barnwell, Robert Banfield, C. Edward Price, Paul G. Bates, Denny Dehnert and Kenneth Howard.

"Passengers" will dine in Beirut, Lebanon, in the luxurious Palace of Beit ed-Din. Final stop on the itinerary is Baghdad, city of "The Thousand and one Nights," where Jolly Rogers members and guests will dance under a golden tent adorned with multi-colored tassels.

An exhibition of Arab dances will be performed by four couples who are students from the University of California.

St. Anselm's Church Setting Of Wood-Geramoni Nuptial Rite

Corinne Agnes Geramoni of Ross became the bride of William Robert Wood on Saturday afternoon at St. Anselm's Church in Ross, the Rev. William Burns officiating.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Geramoni of Ross, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a full length white Italian dupioni gown with lace applique.

Cecille Geramoni as her sister's honor attendant and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Peter Sheridan of Sausalito, Mrs. James Thalhammer of Fairfax and Emily Carnahan of San Francisco, all wore ice green chiffon over taffeta dresses.

Laura DeGennearo was flower girl and Timothy Donovan was ring bearer.

Jack Wood of San Francisco was best man and ushers were Donal Geramoni of Ross, brother of the bride, Jack Wood and William Kearney of San Francisco and Peter Sheridan of Sausalito. A reception was held at the Meadow Club.

The bride was graduated from Marin Catholic High School and San Jose State College and is a teacher in Pacifica.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Wood of Brighton, Mich. He was graduated from the University of Michigan and is an insurance broker in San Francisco, where the couple will live.

Cystic Fibrosis Chapter To Have Tea For Parents

The Marin Chapter of National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation will hold a tea honoring the mothers of C.F. children on Friday at 2 p.m.

Mrs. James Zinc will be hostess at her home at 92 Corte Fedora, Greenbrae. Pouring tea and coffee will be the Mesdames Bruce Walker and Harry Summers Jr.

In the receiving line with Mrs. Zinc will be the newly elected officers: Mesdames Terry Critchett, president; Frank De Ross, vice president, Maurice Rosano, secretary, and Don Davies, treasurer.

Best Cooked On Rack

It's best to cook pot roast on a rack or trivet; if this aid isn't at hand, be sure to turn the meat occasionally to keep it from sticking to the bottom of the pan.

APARTMENT FOR ELDERLY — A proposed five-million-dollar, 12-story apartment and health center for persons 62 years of age or older on the south side of Bon Air Hill, Larkspur, is depicted in this drawing by architect Benson Eschenbach of Richmond. The proposed development would have 282 living units and a 55-bed health center.

Apartment, Health Center Plan Due

The Larkspur Planning Commission will hold a public hearing on development of a 12-story apartment and health center for elderly persons at 8 p.m. next Tuesday at City Hall.

The five-million-dollar development has been designed as a retirement residence for persons 62 years of age or older on a six-acre site on the south side of Bon Air Hill.

Valley Investment Co., headed by Dr. John C. Siemens, administrator of Ross General Hospital and Novato General Hospital, is seeking a use permit for the project and a variance to permit the 140-foot height of the main building.

Dr. Siemens, Niels Schultz Jr., president of Belardo Co., owners of the land, and John D. Erickson, planning consultant to Larkspur, are scheduled to report on the proposed development at the hearing.

Schultz said the development, to be known as the Tamalpais, will be compatible with the countryside. It will have deck space for outdoor dining, and recreational facilities and roof gardens.

Population density will be lower than that of a typical apartment community and there will be limousine service to decrease automobile traffic in the area, he said.

Dr. Siemens said the Marin Council of Community Services has reported a need for housing for elderly and the need for housing program to be developed specifically for Marin County.

Mill Valley Property Owners Elect Officers

Directors at large are Dusty Roads, Randolph J. Esplin, and Francis J. Ryan.

Fire District's Budget Is Lower

Stinson Beach Fire Protection District commissioners adopted a preliminary 1964-65 budget Monday of $12,840. This year's budget is $13,700.

Tax rate is expected to be held at about the same as this year, 59 cents per $100 assessed valuation, according to Mrs. Harriet M. Greene, assistant secretary. Final budget is to be approved June 24 at 8 p.m. at the Community Center.

The budget includes money for an air horn to replace a fire siren on Shoreline High way opposite Stinson Beach State Park.

Ross To Stress Sports, Arts During Summer

Sports and creative arts will be stressed in the Ross summer recreation program, scheduled to run in two sessions in June and July, according to Mrs. Leonard B. Stafford, committee chairman.

First session will go from June 22 through July 7. The second will run from July 8 through July 24.

Open to children from grades one through eight, the program will have classes in swimming, golf, tennis, typing, drama, art, creative writing and square dancing.

Albert Endriss, physical education teacher at Redwood High School, will direct the summer school, sponsored by the Ross Parent-Teacher Assn. in cooperation with the Ross School District and the town council.

Talk On Flowers

Lila Lillie, fuchsia and succulent grower and owner of Lila's Nursery in San Rafael, will speak at a meeting of the Garden Society of Marin Friday at 8 p.m. in room 40, College of Marin, Kentfield, president Linton C. Whitby announced.

Confucious Say:
"See Mee"
For one of these fine lots. These 2 new lots we are offering for the very first time. Large, beautiful and level on Butterfield Road. One at $12,500 and the other at $13,500. No one has seen these lots as of this ad and they are nice. Always excellent terms with Peterson & Greene.

On San Pedro Rd. and not very far out we have just listed this 7000 sq. ft. lot with a view of the bay, for $12,500. Out of town owner wants a quick sale so we say bring us an offer. Call or come by, and it only takes 5 minutes to show it to you.

This beautiful lot on the San Rafael Canal is a real beauty. 150 ft. of water frontage is ready to build on and has view unlimited. Deep water docking on a patrolled canal. Buy now and build the home of your dreams at your convenience. $29,350.

ALSO
We have a few other fine lots on both sides of the San Rafael Canal at prices as low as $17,250.

FOOT LOOSE

isn't it about time you moved up to a really luxurious 2-bdrm. apt. that's "typically Marin"? . . . enjoy the pleasant combination of warm sunny Marin weather and the cool waterfront breezes practically at your patio . . . enjoy private spaciousness, weather insulation and sound conditioning thruout your apt. . . . join in the pleasures of your own putting green, swimming pool, sauna bath and beautifully landscaped (maintained) gardens . . . now you can content yourself with the convenience of elevators, separate laundry rooms on each floor, fully equipped kitchens, wall-to-wall carpeting and full draperies.

if you choose, we'll move you FREE by Republic Van & Storage . . . or perhaps — absolutely free — the best set of Wilson golf clubs that money can buy to give that putting green a workout), or a FREE portable GE TV set! We want you to be happy getting here . . . and staying here . . . whether you lease or buy, there's more square feet of quality and luxury for the same dollar spent here, than anywhere else in Marin . . .

REGULAR MEETING OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS HELD TUESDAY, MAY 5, 1964, AT 9:00 A.M.

PRESENT: SUPERVISORS Peter H. Behr, George H. Ludy, Byron W. Leydecker, William A. Gnoss, Chairman; Geo. H. Gnoss, Clerk. SUPERVISOR William D. Fusselman present at 9:20 a.m.

The Board took the following action:

Authorized the Chairman to execute an agreement on behalf of the County with the State Division of Forestry covering the final quarter of this fiscal year; and on the same motion authorized the Chairman to execute a termination of agreement covering the original agreement entered into between the County of Marin and the State Division of Forestry for the 1963-64 fiscal year, termination date being March 31, 1964.

Adopted a resolution authorizing payment of a lost coupon, County of Marin Lucky Road Improvement District Special Assessment Improvement Act 1911 Bond No. 4, Due 1974.

Adopted a resolution appointing persons to the offices of the Directors of the Board of the Inverness Public Utility District, in lieu of an election.

Approved the minutes of the Board meeting held on April 28, 1964.

Adopted a resolution approving the report on the Marin County Road System for the year 1964 and ordered its transmittal to the State Department of Public Works.

Received a petition bearing 88 signatures, petitioning the Board of Supervisors to place a guard rail from the Old Fire Station Road to the bottom of White's Hill, and following discussion, referred the matter to the budget file and directed the Director of Public Works to present a report on costs of erecting rails along the entire portion of Whites Hill, to be a priority item in the next budget.

Reversed the decision of the Planning Commission and approved the application of St. Isabella Church for an Adjustment to permit the erection of an off-site free-standing directional sign in the Manuel T. Fretias Parkway right-of-way, 800 feet east of Las Pavadas, Terra Linda.

Adopted a resolution approving and adopting an amendment to the Marinwood P-C Master Plan in accordance with Planning Commission Resolution No. 2013.

Adjournment was taken at 4:00 p.m. SINE DIE

140 Required For Polaris Sub

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Each Polaris submarine has two 140-man crews, designated the Blues and the Golds.

Each stays on duty three months, then returns to the United States for three months of leave and additional training while the alternate crew takes command. Crew switches are made at an overseas base to reduce the time the submarine will be off patrol.

Lack Of Quorum

The Larkspur Planning Commission did not meet last night due to lack of quorum. Next meeting will be next Tuesday at 8 p.m. at city hall.

Money Background Ignored By People

People are interested in earning, spending, saving and collecting money. They are interested in coins, banknotes, currency and barter.

However, the origin and background of money is too often unknown or ignored. This is the premise of the Marin Coin Club which is sponsoring what it believes to be the first coin show ever held in Marin County this week end at the American Legion Hall, 476 Miller Avenue, Mill Valley.

The show, to feature United States coins and banknotes, foreign coins and a gold coin collection, will be opened at 10 a.m. Saturday by N. Charles Brusatori, Marin superior court judge, in a ribbon-cutting ceremony.

The show will run from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturday and 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday.

Many unusual and rare coins, medals and mint oddities will be on display, according to Mrs. George Gosser of Mill Valley, publicity chairman.

Competitive exhibits are being entered by collectors and dealers in several classifications and there will be exhibits by junior collectors under the age of 18.

Awards will be made on the basis of originality of display, effectiveness of the ideas presented, range and scope of coverage in material and the relative amount of numismatic information used in the exhibit. Varon Smith of Nicasio is chairman of awards and exhibits.

Auctions of coins will be held at 1:30 and 7:30 p.m. Saturday and at 1:30 p.m. Sunday, with Charles Richesin of Stockton as auctioneer.

The show will be open to the public without admission charge.

Atlat Missile Due For Much More Use

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The Atlas, the United States' first intercontinental range missile, completed its test flight program in 1962. But Atlases will be fired here for several years as space boosters and to test various warhead and penetration aid designs.

Among warheads being tested are those with dummy warheads to deceive enemy detection apparatus, slim tapered nose cones to reduce the radar image, and nose cones capable of maneuvering in space to avoid counter-measures.

Great Imposter Hires Belli To Defend Him

Demara, who has successfully masqueraded as a Navy surgeon, Trappist monk and others is in jail here charged with grand theft, child molesting and contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

VAN DELLEN

The teen-ager leads an active life but does not have a boundless store of energy. Wise parents recognize this limitation and lay down the law when signs of fatigue appear. They insist upon more rest for the youngster, an unwelcome edict when it interferes with social activities.

Most conscientious high school students have a busy schedule. They carry a heavy academic program and numerous extracurricular activities, including athletics, band, or a part time job. Homework occupies their evenings, leaving the weekend for rest and fun. Sleep recharges our batteries and Saturday mornings and Saturday afternoons are made to order for this purpose—unless there are better reasons for remaining awake.

A THOROUGH PHYSICAL examination is suggested when the youngster looks pale or complains of weariness. He may have kidney disease, anemia, low metabolism of a chronic infection in the nose, throat, or teeth. The adolescent may put on a bold front or deny feeling tired when it means missing an important examination or a baseball game.

On the other hand, nature comes to the rescue by making young persons appear lazy, particularly when there is nothing special to do or the given task holds no interest. The majority prefer listening to radio music to mowing the lawn and looking at TV to cleaning the basement.

AN ADEQUATE DIET is essential. Some youngsters add six to 10 inches to their height during periods of rapid growth and the demand for food, especially proteins is tremendous. Some nourishment is allotted to growth and the remainder goes into energy production and the replacement of worn-out tissues. These boys and girls need at least a quart of milk a day plus meat, fish, eggs, cheese, vegetables, fruits and cereals.

The best tonics for sluggish but healthy teenagers are out of door exercise, sunshine, good food, and ample rest. When psychological factors are responsible for fatigue, counseling may restore these children to normal.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

PANICKY

J. F. writes: Are extreme nervousness and anxiety to the point of panic signs of an oncoming nervous breakdown?

REPLY

Yes. Consult your physician because a tranquilizer and a few helpful suggestions may bring your emotional state under control.

FLAXSEED AND WATER

L. M. writes: Will drinking boiled flaxseed in water every hour heal a spastic colon?

REPLY

No. Spastic bowel relaxes when the victim avoids roughage in the diet and eliminates tension, fatigue and excitement.

VITAMIN C AND HAIR

D. J. M. writes: Will excessive amounts of vitamin C cause baldness?

REPLY

No. Vitamin C overdosage rarely causes symptoms because the body elminates what it does not need.

NERVE PRESSURE

P. K. writes: Does sciatica ever become chronic?

REPLY

Yes. Pain persists so long as there is pressure on the sciatic nerve. Distress may return after surgery if new pressure points develop.

DAILY HONEY

V. H. writes: What benefit would I get from taking a tablespoon of honey every day?

REPLY

Sixty calories (17 of which are carbohydrates) and a trace of minerals and vitamins.

Today's Health Hint—Learn to relax.

Two Teen-Age Musicians To Show Talents On Television

Two teen-age Marin County boys soon will display their musical talents on television.

Mike Wellen, 15, San Rafael High School freshman, will display his clarinet virtuosity, and Sleepy Hollow resident Gregory Norgaard, 16, will accompany his own folk singing on the guitar. The show will be broadcast on KTVU (Channel 2) from 7 to 8 p.m. on May 23.

Wellen has won recognition for playing first chair clarinet with the College of Marin symphony group since he was 13, and also has played first chair with the San Francisco Symphony. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wellen, 18 Sirard Lane, San Rafael.

Guitarist - singer Norgaard has been studying music formally for only two years. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Loring C. Norgaard, 25 Tarry Road, Sleepy Hollow. He is a junior at Sir Francis Drake High School.

Marin College Candidates Announced

William Parfitt of San Rafael and Bruce Federspiel of Larkspur are unopposed candidates for public relations commissioner and assembly commissioner, respectively.

A six-member song leading team headed by Francine Lento of San Rafael is unopposed for election as is the five-member yell leader group headed by Thomas Crouteau of Fairfax.

A rally at which candidates' speeches will be given will be held at 12:30 p.m. tomorrow. Election will be from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. next Monday and Tuesday on the Kentfield campus.

Marin County Disease Listed

Measles, mumps and streptococcus infections crowded each other for the top spot on the list of communicable diseases reported in Marin County last week.

There were 23 cases of measles, 22 cases of mumps and 22 cases of strep infections reported to the county health department during the week, according to Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, county health officer.

There also was one tuberculosis case reported in Fairfax, bringing the 1964 TB case total to 16.

Other communicable diseases listed were: gonorrhea, seven cases; syphilis, four, and infectious hepatitis, one.

Man Arrested In Assault Case

Isaac Arthur Sanchez, 22, of 1822 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Fairfax, was arrested by San Rafael police Monday on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon after allegedly striking a San Mateo man on the back of the head with a soft drink bottle.

Police arrested Sanchez after Jerry Douglas Gillette of San Mateo reported Sanchez struck him while they were visiting the apartment of Robert Manning at 908 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, Monday afternoon. He gave no reason for the attack.

Roast Lamb Is A Hellenic Delight

FROM THE LAND of the Greeks comes this gastronomic treasure, Arni Pisto sto Charti—roast lamb in parchment. The recipe is accented with a watercress garnish.

The versatile Greeks, in a land poor in soil, have managed to add many wonderful dishes to our gastronomic treasure including the one below for Arni Pisto sto Charti—roast lamb in parchment:

- 6 lb. leg of lamb
- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- Parchment paper
- 2 cups coarsely chopped onions
- 1 can (8 oz.) tomato sauce
- ¼ cup white dinner wine
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 1 teaspoon spearmint, crushed
- ½ teaspoon oregano
- ¼ teaspoon garlic powder
- ¼ teaspoon fine grind java black pepper
- Olive oil
- Watercress

Wipe lamb; brown well in 2 tablespoons olive oil in a large heavy skillet. Place parchment paper in a large shallow roasting pan; place roast in center of paper; Saute onions in remaining fat in skillet. Stir in tomato sauce, wine, lemon juice, salt, Spearmint, Oregano, Garlic Powder and Pepper. Simmer 2 minutes. Spoon over lamb making sure all sides are brushed with sauce. Fold and wrap paper over lamb, tucking ends in securely so package will remain sealed. Brush well with olive oil. Roast in moderate over (350° F.) 4 hours brushing paper occasionally with oil. Remove sealed roast to a heated serving platter carefully so that paper does not tear. Garnish platter with watercress. Cut paper at the table just before carving. Serves eight persons.

Mrs. L. B. Johnson's Favorite Pie

And no wonder. The Pecan Pie that Lady Bird Johnson votes the best is the recipe of Zephyr Wright whose cooking efforts our President's family have enjoyed for the last 20 years, and who is now plying her skill at The White House.

MRS. WRIGHT, who started on her culinary career by studying home economics, has devised the most fabulous recipe for Pecan Pie. We've compared it with dozens of other rules, and hers is the richest. Small portions of this pie are in order, even if you have as much energy as our admirably zestful and gracious First Lady.

HERE'S THE list of ingreddients for the dessert straight from the White House. We've outlined the mehtod we used in testing the pie.

WHITE HOUSE PECAN PIE

- ½ cup (1 stick) butter
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 cup dark corn syrup
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 1½ teaspoons vanilla
- 3 eggs
- 2 cups coarsely chopped pecans
- Fluted unbaked pastry shell in a 9-inch pie pan or plate

Allow the butter to stand in a covered medium mixing bowl at room temperature until it is extremely soft, Add sugar, corn syrup, salt and vanilla; with a sturdy hand rotary beater or mixing spoon, beat until thoroughly blended. Add eggs and beat gently just until blended. Fold in the pecans, Pour into pastry shell. Bake in moderate (375°) oven on the rack directly below the center rack until top is toasted brown and filling is set in center when pie is gently shaken—about 40 to 50 minutes. Pastry edge should be browned and the bottom pastry a pale gold. If top of pie gets very dark toward end of baking time, place a tent of foil over it. Cool on wire rack. If desired, serve with unsweetened whipped cream. (AP)

New Dish Has Benefits Of Halibut And Sour Cream

Science and superstition sometimes march hand in hand. A case in point is the age-old belief that fish is brain food. For, in the light of modern science, this so-called "old wives' tale" is more fact than fiction. Fish, like any other wholesome food, helps provide elements the body requires. And scientists do agree that a healthy body is an important prerequisite for a sound mind. Halibut is just one of the many lean, white-meated fish recommended by nutritionists as a unique low-fat, low-calorie source of high-quality proteins, vitamins and minerals. Here is an intriguing new dish from the Halibut Assn. of North America combining the important nutritional benefits of halibut and sour cream.

HALIBUT BAKED IN SOUR CREAM WITH STUFFED MUSHROOMS

- 2 to 2½ lbs. halibut steaks fresh or frozen
- 16 medium-sized fresh mushrooms
- 1 small onion, chopped
- ½ cup fine dry bread crumbs
- ½ cup melted butter or margarine
- 3 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ⅛ teaspoon pepper
- 16 small shrimp (½ lb. or less)
- 1 cup commercial sour cream

If halibut is frozen, let stand at room temperature 30 minutes. Trim mushrooms; remove stems. Set hollowed-out caps aside and chop stems. Combine with onion and bread crumbs. Combine butter, lemon juice, salt and pepper. Add about half this mixture to crumbs and mix well. Fill mushroom caps loosely with dressing (there will be some left), then press a shrimp into each. Butter a bake-and-serve platter large enough to hold steaks. Sprinkle remaining dressing on platter; top with steaks and arrange mushrooms, filled side up, around. Pour remaining melted butter sauce over steaks and mushroom caps. Spread steaks with sour cream and place a peak of sour cream on each mushroom cap. Bake in moderate (325°) oven about thirty minutes or until fish is flaky and sour cream is barely browed. Sprinkle with paprika and garnish platter with parsley. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Serve Bananas Up In Style

Serving bananas with a main dish isn't some bright new idea modern cooks have dreamed up.

According to a distingulshed cook book of the time, Beef Stanley is made this way. Beef sirloin is roasted over a bed of finely cut vegetables (carrot, onion, celery, leek and parsley) and seasonings (crushed garlic, peppercorns, bay leaf, whole cloves and thyme). A suspicion of gravy is made from the pan goodies plus demi-glace and strained. Next freshly grated horseradish is mixed with a few tablesopoons of hot cream, and bananas—cut in half legthwise—are coated with flour and fried briefly in butter. To assemble the dish, the horseradish cream is spread over the beef and it's surrounded by the gravy and bananas.

'AMERICAN'

Can She Bake Oatmeal Bread?

Nothing, but nothing succeeds around our house like home-baked loaves of bread.

Just let the old fashioned fragrance of yeast baking come from our kitchen and our family is overjoyed. Home-baked bread, served fresh and hot from the oven, even takes the place of dessert. For the last time it's passed around, we offer the crusty slices with honey or preserves and everyone is happy.

We call this bread "American" because it its richer and softer than the Canadian oatmeal bread we grew up on. The richness happens because there's more sugar, shortening and milk in this bread than our mother used to use. These ingredients give the bread a soft texture and help to retard staling.

AMERICAN OATMEAL BREAD

- 1 cake compressed or 1 package dry yeast
- ¼ cup lukewarm water
- 1 cup milk, scalded
- 1 cup boiling water
- ¼ cup shortening
- ¼ cup firmly-packed light brown sugar
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 2 cups old fashioned rolled oats
- 3½ to 4 cups all-purpose flour

Soften yeast in lukewarm water or dry yeast in warm water. Pour scalded milk and boiling water over shortening. brown sugar, salt and oats; cool to lukewarm.Stir in 1 cup flour. Add softened yeast. Stir in enough more flour to make a soft dough. Turn dough out on floured board or canvas; knead until smooth and satiny, about 10 minutes. Round dough into a ball; place in greased bowl; brush lightly with melted shortening. Cover and let rise in warm place until nearly double in bulk; about 1½ hours. Punch down dough; cover; let rest 10 minutes. Divide in half and form into loaves. Place in two greased 8½ by 4½ by 2½-inch loaf pans. Brush tops with melted shortening. Cover; let rise until nearly double in bulk, about 45 minutes. Remove from pans; brush lightly with melted butter or margarine. (AP)

ALMANAC

Today is Wednesday, May 13, the 134th day of 1964 with 232 to follow.

The moon is approaching its first quarter. The morning star is Saturn. The evening star is Venus.

On this day in history:

In 1607, the first colonies to establish permanent English settlements in the New World started to build their fortress community near the James River in Virginia, which was later to become Jamestown.

In 1940, Queen Wilhelmina, Crown Princess Juliana, and key figures of the Dutch government arrived in England after fleeing from Nazi invaders of the Netherlands.

In 1945, Prime Minister Winston Churchill said in a victory address to the British Empire that Britain would throw her entire military might behind the U. S. in the war against Japan.

A thought for the day — English author John Morley said: "You have not converted a man because you have silenced him."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey. Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Trumping Partner's Ace May Be Winning Maneuver In Game

Trumping your partner's ace usually means that you're not paying attention to the game and that you have made a careless play.

If you trump the ace carefully and with malice aforethought, you may get thanks from your partner instead of a black look.

Opening lead — ♣ Q

When this hand was played in New York a couple of years ago, declarer was Louis P. Frank, a very careful attorney. If you think he trumped his partner's ace you've been reading my mind.

VOID USEFUL

The dummy was disappointing: A void in diamonds would have been useful, but the void in clubs was sheer waste.

South was threatened with the loss of two diamonds and two trumps, to say nothing of a possible loss in hearts.

Since there was only one real chance for the contract, Frank played for it. He wanted East to have K-x-x of hearts and for the top trumps to be split.

RUFFS CLUB

Frank ruffed the club lead in dummy and led a heart to finesse with the queen. When this succeeded, he ruffed the king of clubs in dummy and repeated the heart finesse.

That worked also, and he cashed the ace of hearts to clear the suit.

Now Frank led the ace of clubs and deliberately ruffed it in dummy. (There was no other way to get to dummy.)

LAST HEART

Finally, he led dummy's last heart and discarded one of his losing diamonds.

East could not gain by ruffing with the ace of trumps, so he allowed West to ruff.

But then the ace and king of trumps fell together on the same trick. The defenders could get only one diamond, one ruff, and one trump trick.

QUESTION

Partner opens with 1 NT (16 to 18 points) and the next player passes.

You hold:
♠ K 3
♥ 10 7 2
♦ K J 6
♣ Q J 9 8 4

What do you say?

Answer: Bid three notrump. With your 10 points, the combined count is 26 to 28 points, enough for game in notrump, but not enough for game in clubs.

QUESTION

Dealer, at your right, opens with one spade.

You hold:
♠ A 4
♥ K 8 7 4 3
♦ K 5
♣ Q 9 8 3

What do you say?

Answer: Pass.

Your hearts are not strong enough for an overcall at the level of two, and the hand is not suited for a takeout double.

Skateboarding Is Great Fun —But Pretty Dangerous Too

By JEFF GREER

Skateboards are "big" with Marin's younger set.

The little wheeled gadgets are becoming more common hereabouts than the surfboards that dot Southern California beaches.

Skateboards and surfboards have more in common than might appear at first glance. Both give the rider a swooping, exhilarating feel of speed and some peril; both require good balance and lots of practice to master.

But surfboards ply only the waters; skateboards are beginning to roar down the Marin hills to the terror of motorists and the consternation of pedestrians. Several cities' police chiefs are becoming alarmed about it.

Two near-collisions between skateboarding youngsters rushing down Fairfax hills into moving autos were recited today by Chief James Orr.

"It's sure enough to give you gray hairs," the chief commented, "to be driving along and have one of those things pop up in front of you.

"When a kid is learning to ride a skateboard, particularly, he isn't looking where he's going. He's looking down at the ground. And here in Fairfax, there are practically no sidewalks on the hill streets—so the youngsters are using the roads."

He appealed to parents to warn their skateboarding small fry about the dangers of swooping down the steep streets, risking injury both to themselves and to startled motorists.

San Rafael's Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa reported another facet of the skateboard problem.

Youngsters roaring along the sidewalks have damaged hedges in the area of Ross Street; along Irwin Street officers put a stop to skateboarding for the protection of pedestrians.

San Rafael officers also had to ban the sport on one central district parking lot because the boys—moving so fast they could not control their boards—were risking collision with cars entering the driveway.

Sausalito's Chief Kenneth H. Huck said: "We haven't had any skateboard problems brought to our attention at this time. There are almost no sidewalks here—but if they start using them on the streets, we'll hear about it."

San Anselmo also has no skateboarding problem so far, Chief Raymond R. Buchignani reported.

Other cities' police—particularly in the less hilly areas of Marin—report they see few of the skateboards, and that those in use are being kept off streets, and mostly off sidewalks.

All joined in asking parents to cooperate in stressing safety to skateboards, just as much as to a new auto driver.

"And here's another safety hint," concluded one husky officer. "Parents shouldn't get brave and try the darn things themselves. I'v been stiff and sore for a week — just from two spills!"

Senior Achieves Double Honors

Wayne Michael Duke, son of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Jack W. Duke of 495 Quietwood Drive, Marinwood, has achieved double honors at Texas A. and M. University, College Station, Tex.

Duke, a senior, was selected for a Scottish Rite graduate fellowship at George Washington University, Washington, D. C., one of two students in Texas chosen for the honor.

He also was awarded the American Ordnance Assn. award of a gold key and certificate for his scholastic and military achievement. Duke is a first lieutenant in the corps of cadets at the university and servies as executive officer of a cadet company.

Wrong-Side Parking Crackdown Promised

The California Highway Patrol today warned it will be on extra special watch for cars parked on the wrong side of roadways in the San Geronimo Valley.

All officers of the patrol have been alerted to watch for the illegal practice, particularly on heavily-traveled Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

Trail Ride Set During Summer By Horsemen Assn.

Horsemen will circle Mount Tamalpais in seven and one-half hours riding time for the third annual Mount Tamalpais Trail Ride, sponsored by the Southern Marin Horsemen's Assn., June 26 to 28.

Awards will be made to six places in three divisions: lightweight, heavyweight and juniors, as well as a special award for horsemanship, according to John R. Hogan, horsemen's association president.

Dr. Robert E. Graham of Santa Cruz will be veterinarian judge; Mrs. Linda Tellington of San Luis Obispo, trail judge, and Orville Peterson of Novato, trailmaster. Hogan is general chairman.

Breathe Meaning Into Senior Citizen Month

May, 1964, has been proclaimed by President Johnson as Senior Citizens Month.

This is the second annual nationwide observance of Senior Citizens Month, although various states have been observing it individually for the past six or seven years.

In many communities, the occasion may pass with a brief mention in the local press or a token gesture of goodwill toward the elderly. However, in Marin, the occasion can take on bigger significance.

We've got in our midst a man by the name of Richard Phenix, who is coordinating the activities of seniors. Given the proper tools, we are confident he can breathe life into an otherwise routine and empty title, "Senior Citizens Month."

This can become a month during which the community pledges help to senior citizens or during which the elderly themselves engage in some special activity or service to the community.

We hope it will become both, if not this year, then the next. It was made very clear at the special meeting on housing for older adults at the Civic Center, recently, that older people are severely disadvantaged, even in our lovely and well-provided county.

We salute Roger P. Garety and his new committee for HOME (Housing of Marin's Elderly) and its refreshing approach whereby private enterprise, citizens groups and government will be asked to get together and produce housing really needed in the county.

But we hope also that our senior citizens will fight against all the forces which tend to isolate them from the rest of the world—social, economic and cultural. We hope they will remain useful and productive citizens.

For although it is clearly true that they need us, we also need them, their wisdom and experience, in these trying and confusing times.

We look to men like Richard Phenix, to organizations like HOME, and to other community leaders and organizations to help bring real meaning to Senior Citizens Month in years to come.

Marin's Bothersome Insect

Our county is relatively free of flies, except where there are stables. And the Mosquito Abatement people do a pretty thorough job ridding Marin of mosquitoes. But we do have one insect nuisance which is the summer and autumn bane of outdoor loving Marinites' otherwise unalloyed pleasure—the yellowjacket.

These creatures like to eat anything, from the sugar syrup in hummingbird feeders to tuna fish. They are bold, unwelcome guests at almost all barbecues. We are generally told to ignore them, but on your sandwich it is a bit difficult to do. They pack a painful sting in their tail which they do not hesitate to use when annoyed.

There are as many suggestions on how to get rid of them as there are yellowjackets in the county, but none seems to be 100 per cent effective.

We just have to learn to live with them.

California Teachers Association Launches Campaign For Millions

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Already, the drums have started beating for qualification of the California Teachers Association's constitutional amendment initiative, designed to remove another 200 million dollars from the pockets of the taxpayers.

"CTA Action," the organization's publication, announces the campaign for signatures is off to a strong start, and depicts, pictorially, the presses grinding out copies of the petitions. Only the presses don't grind for CTA, they "hum," as the caption on the photograph says.

And already, the working teachers in California's schools, many of whom object to adding the task of petition circulation to their already multiplied duties, are being handed petitions with instructions to bring them back all signed up.

The CTA brass is driving for a million petitions signed to qualify the constitutional amendment for the November general election ballot.

THE PROPOSED amendment calls for 140 million dollars more for the schools next year, and 60 million dollars the following year. This is accomplished via the average daily attendance route. It would increase the state school fund by $31.56 per A. D. A. the first year, and $12 each year thereafter.

The public will be asked not only to bear the brunt of more taxes for the state's schools, but also, according to CTA Action, the teacher circulators and CTA chapters "also will be collecting voluntary contributions to finance an informal campaign adequate to assure voter understanding of the existing school finance crisis and the proposed solution."

The CTA paper, anticipating a rugged campaign, says "the fund must be completed early in June, so that contracts for outdoor advertising, newspaper space and radio-television time can be arranged."

Despite the fact some of the CTA member circulators are getting an unusual number of turn-downs, it is not anticipated the organization can fail to get enough signers to validate the initiative.

The CTA has in the past had everything in its favor insofar as obtaining signatures is concerned. They have the advantage of being able to place the petitions in the schools during the period when parents visit those institutions on Parent's Day, or whatever the day for checking up on Johnny is called. Usually, this visiting day is in the month of May, and no doubt will be this year.

ALSO, IT IS DIFFICULT for parents with children in school to refuse a request from their offspring's teacher. Signatures in this case would be better than apples, as some parents might think Johnny's grades could be involved if they fail to sign as requested.

One teacher who is actively engaged in circulating the petitions remarked that she might be performing an act involving conflict of interest. This particular instructor had no desire or inclination to become a petition circulator, nor a collector for the campaign fund, but is performing the duty because she has not as yet acquired teacher tenure, and reasoned that refusal to collect signatures possibly could have some effect on her future.

Thus, CTA has the weapons to use effectively for whipping its members into line.

Fine Coverage On Valley Battle

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I wouldn't insult you and the I-J by thanking you for the fine coverage you gave to the last act in our valley's recall battle. One doesn't thank a paper for doing a good job. But I would like to express my admiration for the clarity and honesty of your handling. And I'm sure I speak for a growing number of unaffiliated but like-minded San Geronimo Valley residents. Your speedy exposure of all the facts cannot help but win an even greater respect for the Independent-Journal among these committed voters and subscribers.

I'm sorry if it appeared that in our mailing today (May 5) we had taken over the voicing of I-J policy. Such was certainly not intended. But we felt we had to strongly dissociate your paper's powerful influence from the views expressed in the opposition's mimeographed sheet —and we had to do it before the bulk of the voters had gone to the polls. Forgive us if it seemed we were taking liberties.

At this moment, I don't know the outcome of the vote. Either way, however, I'm happy that the I-J comported itself in the unbiased manner to which Marinites have become accustomed.

Discrimination? What Is Meaning

Editor, Independent-Journal:

If "discrimination" is wrong, is it not wrong to take from the thrifty and give to the less provident? Are not graduated income taxes discriminatory? Are not gift and inheritance taxes unjust, depriving people of the free enjoyment of the fruits of their labors? Why are investments of unions tax-exempt? . . .

In 1862 President Lincoln notified the Negroes that Congress had appropriated funds to resettle them in Africa or some Central American country. . . .

The words "underprivileged" and "disadvantaged" are very like Communist cliches! The attainments of Negro doctors, ministers, attorneys, etc., prove that they do have educational opportunities. . . .

It is unconstitutional for any president to send federal troops into a state unless the governor of that state has requested them. Think how many schools could have been built with all the millions that cost! . . .

What right has the president to disregard separation of church and state by appealing to ministers to support his civil rights bill? Or officials of the National Council of Churches to lobby for it? If they were sincere ministers, they would know that the Bible forbids social integration and racial intermarriage. . . .

Don't Allow Boating In Our Drinking Water

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Marin County has been famed for its drinking water since 1850 when water was taken from the springs of Sausalito to be sold in the streets of San Francisco. Is the situation going to be reversed? Will we, in Marin, be forced to drink bottled water so that people from other areas can go boating on our drinking water?

Recreation is important, but pure water is more to be desired than pure gold, and it is infinitely preferable to typhoid fever and infectious hepatitis. The recent (April 27th) headline in a San Francisco evening newspaper: "Mystery Bacteria S.F. Water Problem" should alert us all so that a similar situation will not occur here.

There are other areas in the county for recreation: Muir Woods, Mount Tamalpais State Park, Samuel P. Taylor State Park, Stinson Beach State Park, Angel Island State Park, the Point Reyes National Seashore. And it appears probable that Forts Barry and Cronkhite will be added to the list. If we want lakes for recreation, let us build them, but not on the Water District.

I do not believe that the people of Marin want their elected representatives, the directors of the Water District, to abdicate. These gentlemen have done wonderful work for the people of Marin. They have filled with distinction the offices to which they were elected. Let us urge them not to surrender their jurisdiction over the Marin Municipal Water District to any other agency.

Integrity Slur On Mrs. Frederick

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The slur upon Mrs. Frederick's integrity on the front page of Tuesday's I-J (May 5) was entirely out of character with the usual objective reporting of your paper. You must surely be aware that asking newsboys to deliver outside material to their customers, and paying them for their trouble, is a not unusual means of distribution. No one has ever before construed such an action as endorsement by the paper, and the suspicion would not have arisen this time had it not been cultivated by certain residents for their own purposes.

What has struck me most forcibly about this entire recall was the lack of ethics on the part of its proponents—from the original inadequacy of the petition and means of obtaining signatures to the method of campaigning by ripping down signboards and attempting to discredit sources of information rather than answering issues. I have been involved in many political campaigns, as you know, but never a dirtier one or one more at variance with democratic principles. I was ashamed for my community that the issues should have arisen at all; I am aghast at the outcome.

However, we have lost an election and, unlike our recent antagonists, will not attempt to override majority rule by misuse of the democratic process. But I wish to remind them that they have given the San Geronimo Valley a reputation for irresponsibility that will take a long time to live down.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

IN THE DAYS when everybody was reading "Little Women," Bronson Alcott, high-living and work-disdaining father of authoress Louisa May, regularly dropped into the offices of her publisher in Boston, Little, Brown and Co., in search of cash. "Just charge it against Louisa's royalties," he would suggest grandly. Finally, his daughter had to call a halt; thereafter he was given cash only when he could produce a written authorization from her.

Today, framed at Little, Brown is one of Miss Alcott's notes, reading, "Please give my pa $50." Pa had thoughtfully crossed out the "$50" and made it read "$100." Nobody knows whether or not he got away with it.

NO MORE stockyard smells in Phoenix! Fastidious cattlemen in the Arizona metropolis now fly helicopters over the yards and spray the cattle with a perfumed deodorizer, mixed with water. The caressing aroma lingers for a full fortnight, and residents living down wind from the stockyards are ecstatic.

IT IS RUMORED that one of the richest and most fashionable members of a Fifth Avenue club is so afraid of his domineering wife that he has been divorced from her for eight months and has not yet summoned up sufficient nerve to tell her about it.

Historic Supreme Court Decision Against Bias, Now 10 Years Old

WASHINGTON (AP) — For three centuries American Negroes had been waiting at the gate that kept them in the Jim Crow cellar of American life. Then on May 17, 1954, the Supreme Court unlocked it for them.

That was 10 years ago, but Negroes have been able to push it open only very slowly.

ON THAT FAR-REACHING day in May the court said public school segregation because of a child's race was wrong, that it meant unequal treatment and was therefore unconstitutional. But the ruling went far beyond schools.

For in effect the court said the very principle of segregation is wrong, which meant from then on Negroes could fight with confidence against all forms of segregation and discrimination in public places.

They have been fighting since. And many white people — including the clergy — who had no racial prejudice but had sat idly by through the decades until 1954 have joined them in the struggle.

AS THE STRUGGLE grows, so does violence, which causes national concern.

If it had not been for that court decision of 10 years ago, the American Negro might still be suffering discrimination in comparative silence, for the law—or the court's interpretation of the law—was against him.

Police would probably have felt far freer to smash Negro protests because of a decision of the Supreme Court in 1896 which said segregation was constitutional.

It wasn't until 20 years later that Negroes were able to begin chipping away at that decision. This was against a discriminatory housing ordinance in Louisville. But the fight thereafter was tortured and slow.

THE REAL MARCH began in the 1930s, when the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People decided on a strategy which was crowned with the final triumph of 1954.

This was the strategy: bit by bit, case by case, fight all the way up to the Supreme Court specific cases of discrimination, like segregation of Negroes on buses, trains, in graduate schools. They won case after case but never total victory.

In each specific case the court might say the segregation practiced was wrong without ruling out the principle of segregation. That finally came 10 years ago, thus wiping out completely the decision of 1896.

Negro agitation will increase this summer and, even if Congress approves the kind of civil rights bill the Negroes want, it will still be, as their leadership has said, only a part of what they feel is their due.

THE ALLEN-SCOTT REPORT

Senators Looking At Sukarno, Call Girls

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — State Department authorities are either amazingly uninformed or deliberately concealing the facts in claiming that their files do not contain documents showing that "call girls" were provided for Indonesia's President Sukarno during his 1956 visit to the U. S.

Not only do these highly explosive documents exist, but copies are now in the hands of Senate investigators who are probing the department's lax handling of its own homosexuals and security risks.

Memorandum dated Nov. 15, 1957, and classified "Secret" from Randolph A. Kidder, special assistant to the deputy undersecretary of state for administration, to Roderic L. O'Connor, deputy assistant secretary of state.

Attached copy of Bureau of Security and Consular Affairs report on Sukarno's visit, showing that "call girls" were provided for the Indonesian playboy ruler.

Letters dated Nov. 1 and 4, 1957, to Loy W. Henderson, deputy undersecretary for administration, from Scott McLeod, then U. S. ambassador to Ireland and former director of the Bureau of Security and Consular Affairs.

On February 21, this column exclusively reported that, "A congressional investigating committee is poring over some astounding State Department documents revealing that arrangements were made to supply Sukarno with what amounted to a harem of 'call girls' during his junkets to the U. S. . . ."

THIS SENSATIONAL disclosure was followed by a barrage of official denials by State Department authorities, foremost among them Asst. Secretary Frederick Dutton, who handles the department's relations with Congress.

These carefully drafted denials were made in letters to members of Congress and indignant citizens outraged by this shocking scandal. At no time did any State Department officials get in touch with these writers, although they did launch an investigation to determine where this column obtained the information.

BUT BECAUSE of the vehement refutations these denials encountered, the State Department is now issuing an unsigned denial in the name of the Office of Public Service, of the department's Bureau of Public Affairs, stating:

"The department's files have been thoroughly examined and contained nothing even remotely resembling the alleged 'State Department document' mentioned in the news story.

"All officers in the department involved in any way with such visits were closely questioned, and all emphatically denied that they had ever participated in actions such as described in the news article, or that they would countenance such action on the part of any official of the U. S. government."

Significantly, the Bureau of Public Affairs is headed by Asst. Secretary Robert J. Manning, who in a major policy speech in Boston last week charged that the government is handicapped in carrying out its foreign policy because of what he called the unlimited freedom of the press to pry into and print government secrets.

Manning questioned the principle that "the people have the right to know" when the knowledge can compromise or affect the nation's foreign policy. The press, he claimed, "wants to know a great deal more than the people in whose name it acts."

President Sukarno canceled his plans to visit the U. S. this month after the State Department advised him that the American public is hostile.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By RANDALL GOULD

April (Well Almost May) In Marin Compared With Same In Portugal

LISBON—"Green and lush as Marin in springtime."

Thus Wife Agnes sums up April (verging into May) in Portugal. So it seems that as the Goulds lag in returning to Marin, Marin now has come to us.

But we do have a little trouble understanding both the language and the money. Fortunately, all the news turns out good.

PEOPLE ARE KIND and obliging beyond belief, as indeed everywhere we've been since sailing under the Golden Gate Bridge last January 14. And every time I think I've been economically stung it turns out a case of a misplaced decimal point.

For instance, I put our handsome bright red Porsche "Rotemaus" into the hands of the local distributors for oil change and 3,000-mile mechanical check. After a full day I brought it back and said, "Golly, cars are costly in Europe — that cost me $100."

THEN I REMEMBERED I had only the equivalent of $100 in escudos when I entered the country a couple of days before, and I wasn't broke yet. So for a full day plus materials and including a wash job I'd paid $10.

When I got a haircut I could have tendered the Marin price and got $1.50 back including tip. Same for last trim in Heidelberg, but on the whole Portugal offers the biggest bargains we've seen.

And the best clams, lobster and plenty else that will make me quite a figure along San Rafael's Fourth Street if I can still waddle.

AT RISK of having the I-J management give Agnes a joint by-line, let me boil a few notes she made about similarities of this lovely area to home sweet home. Said Agnes of Portugal:

"White iris cherished in Marin gardens, wild; row on row along roadside ditches.

"RED BUD they call Judas Tree because it blooms during Holy Week. Even bigger than California variety.

I hate to admit it, but Portugal's cork oaks strike me as an improvement on the California live oak. The cork grows as bark, is shorn off every five years or so, and you pass tremendous, big but light loads of it in two-wheel mule carts.

WHAT'S MORE, Portugal produces some mighty fine fluids to go under the cork, and if you didn't want some with your meal you'd rightly be considered crazy.

Expect us home. But not quite right away. We have a few more chores.

Ross Council To Open Bids On Sealcoating

The Ross Town Council will open bids for sealcoating portions of Sir Francis Drake at its meeting at 8 p.m. Thursday in the town hall.

20th Century-Fox Suit Against Liz, Burton Just Doesn't Add Up

WASHINGTON — A few weeks ago 20th Century-Fox announced they were suing Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton for 50 million dollars in damages in connection with the motion picture "Cleopatra." The couple were charged with breach of contract and depreciating the commercial value of the movie by their "scandalous" conduct before, and during, the filming of the movie.

When the news was published, Bob Hope said, "Gee, that's going to spoil their honeymoon."

AS ONE OF THE many combat correspondents who covered the sinking of "Cleopatra" from beginning to end, we were certainly interested in the figure 20th came up with. All of us in Rome knew the Elizabeth Taylor-Burton romance was a hot one, but we never figured it was worth 50 million dollars.

So we went back over our notes to see if the 50 million dollars was justified.

There was one night the couple went out in Rome and Mr. Burton almost socked an Italian photographer. That certainly was worth five million dollars to 20th. Then there was another evening when several reporters tried to climb over Miss Taylor's stone wall while Mr. Burton was presumed to be in the house. That was worth $3,500,000 of injury to the reputation of the picture.

On another occasion the couple went for a picnic to the beach with Miss Taylor's children. This cost 20th $4,900,000 in bad publicity.

AND THEN THERE was that week end when they went off together and Miss Taylor came back with a swollen eye. We put down $6,100,000 for that incident.

Of course, the big damage was done when they were photographed on a raft together. This was terribly costly to the studio and probably resulted in their losing $7,800,000 in business.

THEN THERE WERE the love scenes at the studio, and while the press agents pretended they were good for the picture, and that people would break down the doors of the theaters to see them on the screen, we knew all along it was costing the Fox people embarrassment to the tune of possibly five million dollars.

Then we had several miscellaneous items marked down, such as the couple's being photographed in Roman night clubs, holding hands on the set, and walking down the Via Veneto. Under miscellaneous, we noted six million dollars damages.

But this only comes to about 40 million dollars, and for the life of us we can't figure why 20th tacked on another 10 million dollars.

WE'RE SURE THE studio, who would never take advantage of a publicity stunt, can justify it or they never would have started the suit.

We also owe the executives at 20 Century-Fox an apology. During the filming of the picture, one of the top men said to us, "This picture, in spite of everything, will make 100 million dollars."

We scoffed at the time, but what we didn't know was that Fox planned to get back 50 million dollars of it by suing the stars.
